BRITISH MUSEUM

To the most High and Mighty Monarch,

CHARLS the II.

By the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France and Ireland King, Defender of the True, Catholick and Antient Faith, &c.

Religious, Renowned, and most Gracious King,

His Small Work that chiefly concerns Kings, and perswadeth to Obedience unto them, with all Humility and Submission, I, one of your meanest Subjects, present unto your Sacred Majesty, in whom

Courteſie and Clemency with Authority, are tranſcendently Eminent; of whom, O King of Peace, I cannot but (with the many ten-thouſands of your Loyal and Royal hearted Subjects) give in my Teſt, that Your Sacred Majeſty is not onely as David, but as Solomon, yea, the Solomon of the world, who having Reconciled Three Kingdoms to Your ſelf at Home, and moſt Nations of the World Abroad, have alſo tied Peace to Your Sacred Perſon: Theſe Tranſcendent, All-concluding, and All-commanding Virtues fill Your Loyal and Royal Subjects hearts with confidence that our Eyes ſhall ſee in Your Peaceable days God's Houſe finiſhed, and the Temples built again that have been deſtroyed: And the rather have we this confidence, ſith that Your Royal Majeſty hath broken down the Partition Wall of Rites and Ceremonies in the Church of England, and in the Church of Scotland, and now of Two made One: And as it hath been usual to Unite Nations, and common to call United Nations by one Name, and in them to Establish but one Form of Government Ecclesiastical and Civil, even so hath Your Sacred Majesty done, whereby the Black Monarchy of the Prince of Darkness is now cast down for ever.

Most Serene and Powerful Prince, the attractive Beauty of Your Government draws the very Hearts and Souls of Your Loyal and Royal hearted Subjects, not onely to pay unto You what is due, but also by a Practicable Example to go before others in Obedience, for want of which many years past by and gone, through unduely untempered Zeal, multitudes of Your Subjects denied the Magistrates of their duty, and Your Sacred Majesty the Head of all Government: By means whereof, for some small Differences, a few Error-searching Singulars out-facing and opposing Ever-famous Plurals, uncharitably first set the House of God on fire, and afterwards caused a General Conflagration throughout all Your Majesty's Dominions, which without Art-exceeding Deploration cannot be remembred. Therefore there is great reason why Your Sacred Majesty should beware of yielding hasty belief to the Robes of Sanctimony: By their works you shall know them.

Most Dread Sovereign, By this dimme Light of a small Candle I am come at Noon-day to give what Light I am able unto the dark corners, where the Sun, nor the Moon, Moon, nor the Starr as yet appear, notwithſtanding the Eye-dazling luſtre of them in the Firmament of our Church and State, the Light of the leaſt of them being able to guide the Wayleſs Traveller in the darkeſt night.

Great and Mighty King, the Great God that hath made You thus Great, and ſet You up the Oracle of Kings, the Miracle of Ages, and made You to Your Enemies as a Rock invincible, againſt which they have, and for ever ſhall daſh themſelves in pieces, the ſame Great God give You the Conqueſt of all our Hearts and Wills, that there may be an Harmony and Agreement of Soul and Spirit amongſt all Your Subjects from Dan to Beerſheba, and that this entire Realm of Great Britain, Engliſh, Scottiſh, and Welch, now being framed into one happy Sovereignty, veraignty, it is the humble Prayer prostrate upon the knees of my heart, that the Almighty Three in One, would bring us to be perfectly One.

Most Humble, Loyal,
and Obedient Subject,

To the Right Reverend Father in God,

GILBERT,

By the Divine Providence,

Lord Bp of London.

Reverend Father in God,

THere is but one thing in the World hath moved me to this Publick Addreſſing my ſelf unto Your Lordſhip, and it is this, The Miſrepreſentation of me and my Judgment concerning the Eſtabliſhed Government of the Church of England, by the Falſe Government and the No-Government Faction, and this this onely occasioned from my Child-ish Non-conformity, through their Instructions, for which I humbly beg pardon, for I did it ignorantly: and since Years have taught me Wisdom, with the reasons which prove our Government Holy, Just, and Good, as to the ends thereof, being convinced, as in duty bound, and as an account of my Obedience which I owe, I do in all Humility present unto your Lordship the Reasons of my Conformity; Beseeching the Merciful God and our Heavenly Father to increase his Graces more and more upon You, to his Glory, the Churches Freedom from Error and Heresie, and Your Everlasting Comfort.

Your Lordship's poor Beadsman

Right Honourable Sir John Robinſon, Knight and Baronet, Lieutenant of his Majeſtie's Tower of London, and Lord Maior of the Honourable City of London;

AND

IT is not the firſt nor ſecond time I have Affected to make known the Uprightneſs of my Heart towards his Sacred Majeſtie's Kingly Power, the Eccleſiaſtical and Civil Government of the Church of England, eſtabliſhed in all his his Majestie's Dominions; But never untill this time could I Effect it, and I hope seasonably, when the Grounds and Reasons are considered, which with all Humility I offer in a particular manner unto Your Lordship and Worship, and the rather unto you than to any other Citizens, in as much as ye were so eminently Instrumental in the Restauration of his Sacred Majesty, and since in His Preservation. From whom I have received sufficient cause, to give Publick testimony of my thankfull Heart, (which the whole Kingdome also hath) and to whom I worthily Devote my Self, who next under God and His Sacred Majesty, have preserved me with the Loyal ten-thousands from Ruine and Destruction: and unto whom the Power and Possession of my Person belongs; and therefore none more meet than Your Lordship and Worship, to whom I might after the retirement to my Books, commit the Care of this small Compiled work, which asserteth the Duty of Subjects unto Kingly Power, Ecclesiastical and Civil Government, especially the Duty of all Subjects unto Our Dread Soveraign Lord

King

King Charls the Second, of whom, and of whose Government I cannot Write too much, but may Err in this, that I have Writ no more.

The Everlasting Arms of Divine Power be under Him; and the Never-dying Favours of His All-enduring Love rest upon you, upon all Loyal and Royal Hearts, and His well-placed Subjects of Honour and Obedience, which is the daily Orison of

and

TO THE READER.

Christian Reader,

IT is not possible for any Man to make a true and constant Profession and Confession of his Faith, except he understand the Doctrine of the Church aright, and exercise his Conscience therewith; Then such men as have not the understanding of the Articles of the Doctrine of Christ, expressed in the 39. Articles of the Church of England, in some good degree and measure, are nothing else but Vain Bubbles, which suddenly swell, start up, and fall away of themselves. And if any man will stand in doubt of them he is justly counted not to be a Man, but the Monſter of a Man, and without all Wit: it being the property of a good and ſober Wit, not to love Cauillations, knowing that two times four makes eight, and the Exceſs brings nothing but Diſorder and Amazement. What theſe Articles be, are plainly Compriſed in the Creeds of the Apoſtles, of Nice, and Athanaſius: and theſe we judge and believe, do agree with the perpetual meaning of the Prophets and Apoſtles Writings: Now ſith, that there is but one Truth, and more than one there cannot be, and this Truth we Have, Hold, and Profeſs; Then whatſoever varyeth from that one Truth, muſt needs be no Truth, for Truth agreeth with Truth. Reader, art thou a Chriſtian? I ſuppoſe thou art; canſt thou ſay the parts of thy Catechiſm? I think that there is no Chriſtian will be ſo wickedly rude, as not to know ſo few Heads: Now let thoſe Heads of the Catechiſm be unto thee inſtead of a moſt ſure perfect Rule, to examine, to try, and to judge all Religious and all Doctrines by: For it is certain, that the Catechiſm is a ſhort Sum of all the whole Bible, and containeth all that is required of Neceſſity unto

Faith

Faith and unto our Salvation. But what I write, or have written, I know not how it may pleaſe; I have made it my Study rather to pleaſe God than Man: whether I ſhall offend I know not, with much doubt I have changed ſome Words, and fear if I take others I may take worſe: what ever the Pains be I have taken, I cannot paſs the Strife of Tongues, neither the Malice of Ungratefull and Irreligious Spirits, nor yet Jerks of the Falſe Government, and the No-Government Faction, who as they have, ſo ſtill will endeavour to Diſturb my outward and my inward Peace, by Falſe, Malicious Scandals, Lying Reports and Accuſations, whereby they have and ſtill may promiſe themſelves Concealment of their Ill-contrived Enterpriſes: Like the Arrians of old, the better to bring in their damnable Error concerning the Deity of Chriſt, which Athanaſius withſtanding, and holding faſt his Judgment in the truth of the Deity of Chriſt, they forged Lies and Accuſations againſt him of diſhoneſty with a woman, and cutting off a man's hand, as Euſebius relates. Chriſtian Reader, that theſe Reaſons have been kept from the Preſs twelve months beyond my firſt intentions, hath been by reaſon of ſome proud and ignorant perſons, whoſe Lives were notoriouſly tainted, as the Judgments of others are notably corrupted, who withſtood me to my face.

Yet have I this hope, that they are not ſo long in coming forth as to hinder thy profit and ſatisfaction, who yet remaineſt full of doubt concerning our Governours, and ſure eſtabliſhed Government; nor yet too late for the confirmation and ſtrengthning of thoſe, who doubt not of the one nor the other. Remember we are all under one Head, and why not all of one Heart? Seek not thy own honor, profit, or private eſtimation amongſt men, but the Peace of the Kingdom, with the Salvation of Souls, and the work is done without any danger of ſailing from the Land of Uprightneſs. Read, and conſider what thou readeſt, pray that thou maiſt underſtand and believe the Truth, and the Truth will make you free, which is the hearty prayer of

Your Chriſtian Faithful Remembrancer of your Duty and Allegiance,

TAlem nobis Hierarchiam ſi exhibe-unt, in qua ſic emineant Epiſcopi, ut Chriſto ſubeſſe non recuſent, ut ab illo tanquam unico capite pendeant, & ad ipſum referantur, in qua ſic inter ſe fraternam ſocietatem colant, ut non alio modo quam ejus veritate ſint colligati; tum vero nullo non Anathemate dignos fateor, ſi qui erunt, qui non eam reverenter, ſummaq; obedientia obſervent. If they would bring unto us ſuch an Hierarchy, wherein the Biſhops ſhall ſo rule, as that they refuſe not to ſubmit themſelves to Chriſt, that they depend upon him as their onely Head, and refer all to him, and ſo embrace Brotherly Society, that they are knit together by no other means than his truth; then ſurely if their ſhall be any that ſhall not ſubmit themſelves to that Hierarchy reverently, and with the greateſt obedience that may be, I confeſs there is no Anathema of

If then it hath pleaſed Gratious Princes, for expreſſion of the Honor which they gave to God in the Honor given by them to our holy Function, to grace us with eminent Titles and Rights, can any Chriſtian man be ſo fooliſhly ſpightful as to think, becauſe we are Lord-Biſhops, that we challenge to be Lords of our Clergy: I would theſe Maligners ſhould know, that with High Titles we can bear as humble minds as thoſe that pick that quarel; and are ſo little tranſported with theſe Puffs of Style, that we account it (according to our Saviour's preſcription) our greateſt glory to be Servants to the Souls of the meaneſt Drudges in the Family of our God. Biſhop Hall in his Epiſcopacy of Divine Right.

A CENTURY OF REASONS

For Subscription, &c.

THE Decree of the BB of Spain, assembled in a National Council at Toledo, against Perjury and Treason. Con. Toled Can 2. 636.

Whosoever amongst us shall from this time forward violate the Oath which he hath taken for the safeguard of this Country, and the preservation of the King's Majesty; Whosoever shall attempt the King's Death, or Deposition; Whosoever shall by Tyrannical presumption aspire to the Royal Throne; let him be Accursed before the Holy Spirit, before the blessed Saints, let him be cast out of the Catholique Church, which he hath polluted by Perjury, let him have no Communion with Christian men, nor Portion with the Just, but let him be Condemned with the Devil and his Angels eternally, together with his Complices, that they may be tied in the Bonds of Damnation which were joyned in the Society of Sedition.

Con. 4. 5. 6. 10. Can. 74. VVhosoever of us, or of all the People through all Spain, shall go about by any means of Conspiracy or Practice, to violate the Oath of his Fidelity which he hath taken for the preservation of his Country, or of the King's Life; or who shall attempt to lay violent hands upon the King, or to deprive him of his Kingly power, or by Tyrannical presumption Usurp the Soveraignty of the Kingdom, let him be Accursed in the sight of God the Father and of his Angels, and let him be made and declared a Stranger from the Catholique Church, which he hath prophaned with his Perjury.

The Oath of Supremacy.

I A. B. do utterly teſtifie and declare in my conſcience, that the King's Highneſs is the onely Supreme Governor of this Realm, and of all other his Highneſs's Dominions and Countries, as well in all Spiritual or Eccleſiaſtical things or cauſes, as Temporal, and that no Forein Prince, Perſon, Prelate, State, or Potentate hath, or ought to have any Juriſdiction, Power, Superiority, Preheminence, or Authority, Eccleſiaſtical or Spiritual, within this Realm; and therefore I do utterly renounce and forſake all Forein Juriſdiction, Powers, Superiorities, and Authorities, and do promiſe, that from henceforth I ſhall bear Faith and true Allegiance to the King's Highneſs, his Heirs and Lawful Succeſſors, and to my power ſhall aſſiſt and defend all Juriſdictions, Privileges, Preheminences, and Authorities, granted, or belonging to the King's Highneſs, his Heirs and Succeſſors, or United and Annexed to the Imperial Crown of the Realm. So help me God, and by the Contents of this Book.

The Oath of Allegiance.

I A. B. do truly and sincerely acknowledge, profess, testifie, and declare in my conscience, before God and the World, that our Soveraign Lord King CHARLS is Lawful and Rightful King of this Realm, and of all other his Majesty's Dominions and Countries; and that the Pope, neither of himself, nor by any Authority of the Church or Sea of Rome, or by any other means, with any other, hath any Power or Authority to Depose the King, or to dispose any of his Majesty's Kingdoms or Dominions, or to authorize any Forein Prince to invade or annoy him, or his Countries, or to discharge any of his Subjects of their Allegiance and Obedience to his Majesty, or to give License or Leave to any of them to bear Arms, raise Tumult, or to offer any violence or hurt to his Majesty's Royal Person, State, or Government, or to any of his Majesty's Subjects within his Majesty's Dominions. Also I do swear from my heart, that notwithstanding any Declaration or Sentence of Excommunication or

Depri-

Deprivation, made or granted, or to be made or granted by the Pope or his Succeſſors, or by any Authority derived, or pretended to be derived from him, or his Sea, againſt the ſaid King, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or any Abſolution of the ſaid Subjects from their Obedience: I will bear Faith and true Allegiance to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and him and them will defend to the uttermoſt of my power againſt all Conſpiracies and Attempts whatſoever, which ſhall be made againſt Him, his or their Perſons, their Crown and Dignity, by reaſon or colour of any ſuch Sentence or Declaration, or otherwiſe, and will do my beſt indeavour to diſcloſe and make known unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, all Treaſons and Traiterous Conſpiracies, which I ſhall know, or hear of to be againſt Him, or any of them. And I do further ſwear, that I do from my heart abhor, deteſt, and abjure, as Impious and Hereticall, this damnable Doctrine and Poſition, That Princes, which be Excommunicated or Deprived by the Pope, may be Depoſed or Murthered by their Subjects, or any other whatſoever.

And

And I do believe, and in conſcience am reſolved, that neither the Pope, nor any Perſon whatſoever, hath power to Abſolve me of this Oath, or any part thereof, which I acknowledge by good and full Authority to be Lawfully miniſtred unto me, and do renounce all Pardons and Diſpenſations to the contrary. And all theſe things I do plainly and ſincerely acknowledge and ſwear, according to theſe expreſs words by me ſpoken, and according to the plain and common ſenſe and underſtanding of the ſame words, without any Equivocation, or mental Evaſion, or ſecret Reſervation whatſoever. And I do make this Recognition and Acknowledgment heartily, willingly, and truly, upon the Faith of a Chriſtian. So help me God.

Two things in ſpecial are to be obſerved in this Oath.

1. That the King receiveth his Authority onely from God, and hath no Superior to puniſh or chaſtize him but God alone.

2. That the Bond of Subjects in Obedience to his Sacred Majeſty is inviolable, and cannot be diſſolved. There

There are under the King Free-men, and Servants are Subject unto his Power, as alſo whatſoever is under him, and he himſelf is Subject to no Man, but only unto God, and no Man may preſume Judicially to Examine his doings, much leſs to Oppoſe them by Force and Violence. Bracton 20. years Chief Juſtice in the time of King Henry 3.

Kings are not Bound unto Law, becauſe Kings are Free from the Bond of Crimes, and are not called unto Puniſhment by any Law, being Safe by the Power of Command. St. Ambr.

The people manifeſt the King to be their King, but do not give unto him the right unto his Kingdome, which is of the Lord's appointment, By me Kings Reign: The outward Unction not enferring upon Kings their Authority, but uſed as a ſign of Soveraignty; So that the People making a King, is not by giving him the Right of his Kingdome, but by putting Him into the Poſſeſſion of his Kingdome to Reign over them. Succeſſion and Lawfull Conqueſt are but Titles, whereby Princes receive their Authority, they are not the Original and Immediate fountain of their Authority. Anonymus.

May it please your Lordships,

ACcording to your Lordships Order made in his Majesty's Court of Star-chamber the Twelfth of May last, we have taken consideration of the Particulars, wherein our Opinions are required by the said Order, and we have all agreed,

That Processes may issue out of the Ecclesiastical Courts in the Name of the Bishops, and that a Patent under the Great Seal is not necessary for the keeping of the said Ecclesiastical Courts, or for the enabling of Citations, Suspensions, Excommunications, or other Censures of the Church. And that it is not necessary that Summons, Citations, or other Processes Ecclesiastical in the said Courts, or Institutions, or Inductions to Benefices, or Correction of Ecclesiastical Offences, by Censure in those Courts, be in the King's Name, or with the Style of the King, or under the King's Seal, or that their Seals of Office have in them the King's Arms. And that the Statute of Primo Edwardi Sexti, cap. 2. which Enacted the contrary, is not now in force.

We are also of Opinion, that the Bishops, Arch-deacons, and other Ecclesiastical Persons, may keep their Visitations as usually they have done, without Commission under the Great Seal of England so to do. John Bramstone, John Finch, Humphrey Davenport, William Jones, John Dinham, Richard Hutton, George Croke, Thomas Trevor, George Vernor, Robert Berkley, Francis Crawley, Richard Weston.

To all and every the Ministers, Church-wardens, and Side-men, within the City, Suburbs, and Dioceſs of London.

WHereas I am daily advertiſed by the relations of many honeſt and religious perſons, of a General Miſbehaviour in moſt Churches, in and about the City of London, in time of Divine Service, Men and Boys ſitting then co-ver'd with their Hats on their heads, without all ſhew of Reverence or Reſpect, either of that Holy place or Action, the one being the Houſe of Almighty God, the other a continued Viciſſitude (as it were) of Speech between God and his People. The due conſideration whereof might eaſily induce any well-diſpoſed Chriſtian to uſe ſuch Outward poſture and geſture of his body, as becometh that Sacred place, and the great Majeſty of that

God, to whom they come at that time, Professedly to perform a Divine Worship. I have therefore thought it my duty, incessantly to recommend unto you the Ministers, Church-wardens, and Side-men, the Reformation of this prophane abuse, scandalous to our Religion, against an express Law in that case provided, and condemned by the contrary practice of all Christians in all Ages in their like Solemnities and Assemblies, praying and requiring you to joyn together your utmost endeavours to effect the same, for which purpose it shall be necessary for you, the Church-wardens and Side-men, during the time of Divine Service, diligently to look about the Church, and where you see any covered, if Boys, or of the younger sort, those to shame openly by pulling off their Hats, and chastize with such Discipline as you have been laudably accustomed to inflict upon such rude and unmannerly Fellows; If the Elder or better sort (though I well hope that none of that condition, out of their own judgment, will hereafter offend in this kind) those to admonish gravely of their duty, representing unto them the inconvenien es of this

their

their ill example, and how directly repugnant it is to the Apoſtle's Rule of Decency in the Church, thus to celebrate Divine Service, and to perform a Profeſſed and Religious Worſhip of Almighty God. After which your Admonition, if any ſhall obſtinately refuſe to uncover his or their heads in Service time, you ſhall then preſent them to Me or my Chancellor, to the end that they, by the ſeverity of Cenſures, may be amended, by whom brotherly and gentle perſwaſions have been contemned. Moreover alſo I am certainly informed, That the Publick Service of Almighty God in the Churches is omitted, and thereby come to neglect, and almoſt ſcorned, foraſmuch as the Miniſters read not the Divine Service, the Firſt and Second Service, before their Sermons, according to the order of our Church Liturgy, and the Canon in that caſe provided: I do therefore hereby require all the Parſons, Vicars, and Curates in my Dioceſs, to take care, that they offend not in this kind, ſtrictly likewiſe requiring you the Church-wardens and Side-men, that according to your Oathes you preſent to Me or my Chancellor cellor those Ministers that shall be faulty in this kind, &c.

City Petition 1646.

1. That some strict and speedy course may be taken for the suppressing of all Private and Separate Congregations.

2. That all Anabaptists, Brownists, Hereticks, Schismaticks, Blasphemers, and all such Sectaries as conform not to the Publick Discipline, established, or to be established by Parliament, may be fully declared against, and some effectual course taken for proceeding against such persons.

3. That as we are all Subjects of one Kingdom, so all may equally be required to yield obedience unto the Government set forth, or to be set forth, by Parliament.

4. That no Person disaffected to the Government set forth, or to be set forth, by Parliament, may be employed in any place of Publick trust.

The moſt Reverend Father in God, the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury his Grace, to all the Lords the Biſhops within his Province of Canterbury.

AFter my hearty Commendations. I have lately received Letters from His Majeſty, wherein He takes notice of the continuance and increaſe of ſome bold Abuſes and Extravagances in the Church, eſpecially in Preachers, notwithſtanding His great Indulgence uſed towards them: And fore-ſeeing the miſchief and inconveniencies likely to enſue thereupon, if not timely prevented and repreſſed; Hath out of His Princely and tender care of the Peace of the Church ſent withall certain Directions to be ſtrictly obſerved by the Biſhops in their ſeveral Dioceſſes, (as by the Copies thereof which I have ſent here incloſed, your Lo dſhip's will more fully underſtand) and for the more ſpeedy diſpatch and eaſe in the Communication, hath been Graciouſly pleaſed to command ſo many Copies thereof to be Printed as ſhall be needful, a proportionalle number whereof will be forthwith ſent unto your Lordship for your Diocess. Now as we cannot but with all thankfulness acknowledge His Majesty's Affectionate Care and Zeal in this His providing for the good and Welfare of the Church, by all means which He finds may be conducible thereunto; So my earnest desire and hope is, We shall not be so much wanting to our own good, as not to second those His Majesty's Commands with the utmost of Our endeavours; But that your Lordship, when you shall have given order for the careful dispersing and communicating those Copies, as is required, will by your diligent inspection, and serious Admonitions to your Clergy, as occasion shall be offered, be able in due time to return an account of the success in the Observation, answerable to His Majesty's expectation, and Pious Designs in this His Injunction. And so with my Prayers to God for a Blessing upon your Endeavours herein, I commit you to His holy Protection, and rest,

Your Lordships very Loving Friend and Brother,

The Right Reverend Father in God, Gilbert Lord Biſhop of London, his Injunction.

GIlbert, by the Divine Providence, Biſhop of London, To our Well-beloved in Chriſt in the City and Our Dioceſs of London, ſendeth Greeting: Whereas we are informed and ſadly reſent the great Profanation of the Lord's day, by ſeveral Abuſes and Miſdemeanors in exceſs of Riot, by Tipling, Sporting, Idling, and Wandring about the Streets in the time of Divine Service, and other unlawful and unwarrantable courſes, committed and continued both in your Pariſh and divers other parts of the City, and Suburbs thereof, by an Idle and Licentious ſort of People, to the great diſhonor of God, and profanation of his Day, the ſcandal of our Religion, and the conſcientious Profeſſors thereof, and contempt of the Laws and Authority both Eccleſiaſtical and Civil: Theſe are therefore to require you duely and ſeriouſly to exhort and perſwade thoſe in Authority in your Pariſh

Parish and Congregation carefully to look after all such offenders in any kind whatsoever, together with all those that Abet, Receive, or Entertain them, and either present them unto Us, that we may proceed against them, or (if the nature of their Crime and Offence require it) return them to the Civil Magistrate, that so by the Conjunction of Our Power and Authority, such seasonable and timely Remedy may be used for prevention of the like disorders for the time to come, as is fit and necessary in business of so serious and General concernment.

Given under our Hand and Seal the Twelfth day of September, in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred sixty and two. And in the second Year of our Consecration.

Act. & Mon. fol. 1521.

There was set forth by the most Innocent King Edward the whole Church-Service, with great Deliberation, and the Advice of the best Learned men of the Realm, and Authorised by the whole

Parlia-

Parliament, and Received and Publiſhed gladly by the whole Realm, which Book was never Reformed but once, and yet by that one Reformation it was ſo fully perfected, according to the Rules of Chriſtian Religion in every behalf, that no Chriſtian Conſcience can be offended with any thing therein contained.

Look if any Line be blameable in our Service, take hold of your advantage, I think Mr. Jewel will accept it for an Article. Our Service is good and godly, every Tittle grounded upon Holy Scripture; and with what face do you call it darkneſs? But men are aſhamed to ſeem guilty, who always have been Judges, or at leaſt Accuſers. Dering againſt Haddon.

The Papiſts of all Places, their deſires and attempts to recover England have been always, and ſtill are the ſtrongeſt, which in their ſober moods many of them will acknowledge to have been the onely Nation, that walk the Right way of Juſtifiable Reformation, in compariſon of others who have run headlong rather to a Tumultuous Innovation; whereas that alteration that hath been in England, was brought in with peaceable and orderly Anonymus.

derly proceedings, by General consent of the Prince and whole Realm, Representatively Assembled in Solemn Parliament, a great part of their own Clergy according and conforming themselves unto it. What publick discussing and long deliberation did perswade them to be faulty, that taken away: The Succession of Bishops and Vocation of Ministers continued, the Dignity and State of the Clergy preserved, the Honor and Solemnity of the Word of God not abused, the more Antient Usages not cancell'd, no Humor of affecting contrariety, but a charitable endeavour rather of Conformity with the Church of Rome in whatsoever they thought not gain-saying to the express Law of God, which is the onely approveable way in all New Reformations.

Reasons against the Covenant.

The chief ends of an Oath are the Glo- ry of God, the safeguard and welfare as well private as publick of our Neighbours.

But the ends of the Covenant have not been answerable to these ends, and therefore ought not to be kept nor observed, though sworn unto. For

The Covenant, Cum verbo Dei pugnat, & sit de rebus adversis, falsis, incertis, illicitis, non necessariis, impossibilibus, levibus, futilibus, & irrationabilibus, absq; necessitate. 1.

The Covenant is not agreeable to the Word of God, and is made of things preposterous, false, uncertain, unlawful, not necessary, impossible, light, frivolous, and unseasonable, without necessity. See Dr. Featly's League Illegal. The Anti-Covenant Printed at Oxford 1643.

Juramenta autem de rebus illicitis, &c. facta sive per errorem, sive per ignorantiam, sive per infirmitatem, sive contra conscientiam, non sunt servanda, sed retractanda, & corrigenda, pœnitentiam agendo, & a malo proposito desistendo, non autem in eo persistendo & illud exsequendo, Ps. 15. 6. Nam qui servat juramentum illicitum, (as is the Covenant) Ursinus. 2.

bis peccat, semel male jurando, & iterum male juratum servando: & juxta regulam, Quòd malè juratur pejus servatur. Quæ enim Deus prohibet, ea nec jurata vult servari, & quæ vetat promittere vel jurare ea tanto magis facere prohibet, quanto facere, quam promittere, est gravius. Illicitum enim non servatum minimè facit Deum testem mendacii: quando quidem mali retractatio bona est, ut retractatio juramenti Dividis, quo juraverat se Nabalem perditurum cum familia, &c.

Ursinus. 2. Oaths made of Unlawfull things, either by an Error, or by Ignorance, or through Infirmity, or against the Conscience, it is a sin to keep them. And therefore such Oaths are to be Retracted and Re-called by Repenting, and Surceasing a wicked purpose, not to be continued by Persisting and Practising, lest we add thereby sin unto sin. For he that keeps an Oath made of Unlawfull things, (as is the Covenant) heapeth sin upon sin, both in that he Sware amiss, and also in that he endeavoureth to do that which he Sware amiss, according to the Common rule, Ill sworn, and Worse kept. For what what things God forbids, thoſe things he will not have Men, either Sworn or Unſworn to perform: And what he forbids us to will, or promiſe, or ſwear; ſo much the more he forbids us to do the ſame, how much the more grievous a thing it is to do them, than to will or promiſe. For an unlawful Oath being broken maketh not God witneſs of a Lie, becauſe the revoking of it is good, as appears in the revoking of that Oath which David had made to deſtroy Nabal, with all his houſhold, &c.

Although no Human Power and Authority can diſpence with a Lawful Oath, Quia juramentum pertinet ad forum Divinum, yet in ſome caſe (as in the Covenant) it cannot be denied, but the Obligation of an Oath ceaſeth, Sublata cauſa tollitur effectus, ſublato relato tollitur correlatum. Or when any Oath hath a ſpecial reference to the benefit of thoſe to whom we ſwear, or make the promiſe (as the Covenant had firſt to the Church of Scotland, and pretendedly to the Church of England) if we have their deſire or conſent, the Obligation ceaſeth; becauſe all ſuch Oathes (and ſo the Covenant) venant) from the nature of the thing doth include a Condition. Now the King, the Church of England, the Church of Scotland, nor the Parliaments of either Kingdom, never gave any consent or Civil sanction to the Covenant, but on the contrary have abolish'd all Laws made as illegall and unjust whereby we were bound to the keeping of it: So that the Covenant doth not bind us nor our consciences to the observing of it, otherwise no Laws could be altered by the Legislative Power.

The Unfeigned Assent and Consent of all Ministers.

I A.B. do here declare my unfeigned Assent and Consent to all and every thing contained and prescribed in, and by the Book, intituled, The Book of Common-prayer and Administration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, according to the Use of the Church of England, together with the Psalter or Psalms of David, Pointed as they are to be sung or said in Churches;

Churches; and the form or manner of Making, Ordaining, or Conſecrating of Biſhops, Prieſts, and Deacons.

By the Parliament of England, 1662.

A Declaration or Acknowledgment to be Subſcribed unto.

I A. B. do declare, that it is not Lawful upon any pretence whatſoever to take Arms againſt the King, and that I do abhorr that traiterous Poſition, of taking Arms by His Authority againſt His Perſon, or againſt thoſe that are Commiſſionated by him, and that I will conform to the Liturgy of the Church of England as it is now by Law eſtabliſhed; And I do declare, that I do hold there lies no Obligation upon me, or any other perſon from the Oath, commonly called The Solemn League and Covenant, to endeavour any change or alteration of Government either in Church or State; And that the ſame was in it ſelf an unlawful Oath, and impoſed upon the Subjects of this Realm, against the known Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom.

By the Parliament of Scotland, 1662.

A Declaration to be subscribed unto.

I A. B. do declare, that it is unlawful for any to take up Arms against His Majesty, or to enter in Leagues and Covenants without His Majesty; And that all the late Acts of Committees, and the two late Oathes called the Solemn League and Covenant, and National Covenant, are unlawful, and no ways binding on any.

By the Parliament of Scotland Edinburgh Septemb. 5. 1662.

A Declaration.

I Declare, that I do judge it unlawful for Subjects upon pretence of Reformation or other pretence whatsoever, to enter enter into Leagues and Covenants, or to take up Arms againſt the King, or thoſe Commiſſionated by Him: And that all theſe Gatherings, Convocations, Petitions, Proteſtations, and erecting and keeping Council-Tables, that were uſed in the beginning, and for carrying on of the late Troubles, were Unlawful and Seditious. And particularly, that theſe Oaths, whereof the one was commonly called The National Covenant, (as it was ſworn and explained in the year one thouſand ſix hundred and thirty eight, and thereafter) and the other entituled, A Solemn League and Covenant, were, and are, in themſelves, Unlawful Oathes, and were taken by, and impoſed upon, the Subjects of this Kingdom, againſt the Fundamental Laws and Liberties of the ſame; And that there lieth no Obligation upon me, or any of the Subjects, from the ſaid Oathes, or either of them, to endeavour any change or alteration of the Government, either in Church or State, as it is now eſtabliſhed by the Laws of the Kingdom.

4. Incendiaries, Malignants. Because there are such expressions in the Covenant as are not to be found in any Oath that hath been taken in the Kingdom, and for that the Laws of the Land are left out, and not so much as once named.

5. All Scripture-Covenanting from the Alpha unto the Omega thereof, were commanded or chiefly acted by the Kings or the Chief Rulers, and not one of the Covenants by the Elders of the People, against or without the consent of the King.

6. The Covenant is against Custome, Usage, Judicial Records, and Acts of Parliament, the King's Declarations and Proclamation, and against all the Customs and Usages of all Nations in the world, themselves being Judges, and therefore ought not so much as to have been intended, much less sworn unto.

Mr. Nye. Such an Oath, as for Matter, Persons, and other Circumstances, the like hath not been in any Age, or Oath we read of in Sacred or Human Story.

Iid. We are entring now upon a work of the greatest moment and concernment that ever was undertaken by any of Us, or any of our Fore-fathers before us,

or our neighbouring Nations about us.

The Reformed Churches, the Low-Countries, our Noble and Christian Progenitors entred not into such a Solemn League and Covenant, (whence have we this Covenant then?) Henderson.

The dangers and pressures of the Kingdom of Scotland growing to greater extremity, such as were entrusted with the Publick affairs of the Kingdom were necessitated to call a Convention of the Estates for considering of the present affairs----- And Commissioners were sent from both Houses of Parliament (not from the King) to consider with the Estates of the Kingdom of Scotland (without the King) what then? Their consultations did in the end bring forth this Covenant. When the Reformed Churches shall hear of this---(so neither the King nor the Reformed Churches were consulted with in this matter) How then?

The Covenant is a Divine Engine the godly have found out. This is the first time the Sun saw such a confederation; and therefore there should be as much Art used in preserving the Spirits of Salt-marsh people, as there was Art used in raising them up to this Height.

Coleman. This is a new thing, and not done in our Land before; Ask your Fathers, consult with the Aged of your times, whether ever such a thing were done in their days, or in the days of their fathers before them?

7. 1643. 1641. The Covenant is diametrically opposite to the Protestation taken not long before, wherein we have sworn, That to our Power, and as far as Lawfully we may, we will oppose, and by all good ways and means endeavour to bring to condign punishment all such as shall either by Force, Plots, Conspiracies, or otherwise, do any thing contrary to the true Reformed Protestant Religion established, or against His Majesty's Royal Person, Honor, or Estate, &c. which was taken in Lawful things, besides the Oathes of Allegiance and Supremacy, which were taken Lawfully, and in Lawfull things long before, and so made all contrary Oathes unlawful to be afterwards either taken or kept. Now lay your hands upon your hearts,

St. Jerom. consider and take the counsel of St. Jerom rom unto Ruffinus. Never bluſh, man, to change thy opinion (of the Covenant) for neither you, or I, or any perſon living, are of ſo great Authority, as to be aſham'd to confeſs they have erred.

As it is a crime odious in the nature of it to endeavour the alteration of the Government of the State, ſo it is odious in the judgment of the Law. To alter the ſetled frame and conſtitution of the Government is Treaſon in any State. Pym.

Aut undique Religionem tolle, aut uſquequaque conſerva. Cicero.

Either take away Religion clean, or preſerve it in all points whole and ſound.

The material Sword is put into the hands of the King by Almighty God. Bracton. l. 1. c. 8.

By the material Sword is meant Power and Right, to look to the defence and preſervation of the Kingdom, and it is no leſs than Treaſon to enter into any Aſſociation (or Confederacy) without the King's Conſent, or againſt His Will. lib. 2. c. 24.

WHereas We have lately seen a Vow or Covenant pretended to be taken by some Members of both Houses of Parliament, whereby, after the taking notice of a Popish and Traiterous Plot, for the subversion of the True Reformed Religion, and the Liberties of the Subject, and to surprise the Cities of London and Westminster, They do promise and covenant, according to their utmost power, to assist the Forces pretended to be raised and continued by both Houses of Parliament, against the Forces raised by Us, and to assist all other persons that shall take the said Oath; which Oath, as the same hath been taken without the least colour or ground, the Contrivers thereof well knowing, that there is no Popish Army within this Kingdom, that We are so far from giving countenance to that Religion, that We have always given, and

1. From his Majeſty's command, and becauſe our Government hath been, and ſtands eſtabliſhed by Kingly power, which power I am not to queſtion, but perform what is commanded: for the King ruleth abſolutely, and commandeth his people at his pleaſure, as the World and all things contained therein are tied in ſubjection unto the will of the Higheſt King.

2. Becauſe the Statutes and Acts of Parliament which baniſhed Popery out of this Kingdom, did eſtabliſh our Church-Government with the Ceremonies as Lawful: and if we through weakneſs or perverſneſs make Lawful things to be Unlawful, that will not excuſe us in our diſobedience, our error is our ſin, and one ſin will not excuſe another ſin. Baxter.

3. Becauſe the King as God's Vicegerent is bound to maintain and advance the true Religion, ſo far forth as the light of Nature can manifeſt it, or Divine Revelation doth make it known unto Him: yea, a Chriſtian King is a Law-giver above above the Eccleſiaſtical Law-makers, for with Him is Wiſdom, Power, Righteouſneſs, Meekneſs, Juſtice and Judgment. Therefore we ought to acquieſce in the unanimous Votes of the King's Majeſty, The Honorable Houſes of Parliament, And the Venerable Convocation; and all Powers and Intereſts ought to be fully ſatisfi'd, whether in the deciſion of Controverſies in Religion, making Eccleſiaſtical Canons, &c. or any the like Eccleſiaſtical matters, becauſe they are the conjunct Votes of all the concerned.

4. The General Aſſembly in Parliament is the Common-Council of the Realm, called together by the King for advice in matters concerning the whole Realm; of which Aſſembly, ſome be Counſellors by birth as the Barons, by Succeſſion as the Biſhops, by Election as Knights and Burgeſſes, the King as the Head to give life: The Barony conſiſting of Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commonalty made up of the Knights and Burgeſſes be as the Body, to deliberate, conſer, and conclude. So that foraſmuch as every man from the higheſt to the loweſt is there, either in perſon or procuration, therefore Lambard.

therefore of right reaſon every man is ſaid to be bound by that which doth paſs from ſuch an Aſſembly.

J. Goodwin. The Parliamentary Aſſembly in a Repreſentative and Legal conſideration, is the whole Body of the Nation, and of all the perſons in it, having the ſame Power and Authority by Law, and in Conſcience too, to do every whit as much in every reſpect, as the whole Nation, and all the particular perſons therein could have, if they were met together. All the Kingdom beſides hath no ſuch Power, as they: and things may be done very Lawfully, and with a good Conſcience, by virtue of their Appointment and Command (with the King's Conſent) which could not be done without it, though a thouſand times more men or perſons than they are ſhould command them.

5. Becauſe the Council of the King conſiſteth onely of perſons thereunto eſpecially elected by Himſelf, and thereunto ſworn to ſerve Him with their faithful advice and counſel, and whether they be Nobles or no, it is not material, ſeeing that the Calling cometh not by Birth, but Becauſe the King and Governors ſubſtituted under him, both Eccleſiaſtical and Civil, excel in virtue, by equity ſaving from injury, and do maintain all in one indifferency of Right and Juſtice, and therefore to be obeyed in what they ſhall command by all good Subjects. 6.

A man's conſent to an Unlawful Power, in an abſolute and ſimple conſideration, is a meer Nullity, and ſuch a a Power never the more Lawfullized thereby. J. Goodwin.

Becauſe the King in his own Kingdom is the onely Supreme Judge, and bound by his Coronation Oath to be the onely Judge of his people, as may appear by this one Queſtion therein amongſt others, *Facere fieri in omnibus judiciis tuis æquam, & rectam juſtitiam, & diſcretionem in miſericordia & veritate ſecundùm vires tuas. world are of this opinion, that Her Religion is the high way to Heaven; and if a Tree be known by its Fruits, we doubt not but this Tree is good, which bringeth forth ſuch Fruits as the like are not to be found in the whole world again: a Princeſs (and now a Prince) endued with ſuch piety, ſuch purity, &c. that She (and now He) may be a pattern for all Princes to practiſe by: Grave and Wiſe Counſellors referring all their thoughts and doings to God's glory, their Prince's ſafety, and their Country's commodity: a well-diſpoſed and orderly Commonalty, ruled as much by Religion as Law, obeying as well for conſcience as fear; continual peace and quietneſs, which is a ſingular bleſſing of God, and an undoubted ſign that God liketh well of Her (and now of His) proceedings; For as She (ſo He) baniſhed Popery, keeps the Ceremonies, and maintaineth the Authority of Biſhops.

To attempt to be the Authors of Combinations, to extort by tumults the alteration of any part of the eſtabliſhed Government Eccleſiaſtical or Civil, is Treaſon, and will lay ſuch men open 10.

in vita Eliz. Penry, Udal, Barrow, Greenwood, Studley, Billots, and Bowdler, were Condemned, and three of them hanged for writing Treaſonable and Seditious Books, by which the Peace of the Kingdom might have been diſturbed, though no Rebellion followed.

Holling-ſhed. in vit. Eliz. Copping and Thacker were Hang'd at St. Edmonds-bury for publiſhing the Pamphlets writ by Robert Brown againſt the Book of Common-prayer.

Hows Chron. Mr. Williams, Barriſter of the Middle Temple, was Executed in King James his Reign, for writing a defamatory Book againſt the ſaid King and his Poſterity.

11. Becauſe the Matter of Church-Government is far wide from every man's particular profeſſion, neither is it to be ſpann'd and fathom'd by the length and reach of ordinary diſcretion, but requires great faithfulneſs, gravity, meekneſs, and and dexterity to reſtore Religion into her place, and being placed, there to keep it.

Becauſe it is not a bare good intention, or Zeal without knowledge, that can juſtifie a good action, much leſs an evil action, it muſt be a mature knowledge that will warrant actions; upon which our Cuſtoms are grounded, now Cuſtoms are not to give place to men's Humors, but men muſt reſign their Humors to Cuſtom, nay, to Government eſtabliſhed by Law, for our Government hath been long and often eſtabliſhed, and if there were a change, we ſhould never be at peace within our ſelves, by reaſon of thoſe humorous affections that are amongſt us. 12.

Becauſe thoſe that thwart the Government of the Church, if left to themſelves, would be able to croſs the King, and encourage the people to Rebellion, and thereby become unpeaceable, proud, obſtinate, diſobedient, ſelf-will'd, and contradict the Powers that be of God. For can we expect Unity and Peace from thoſe that have been ſo wofully divided amongſt themſelves, and yet are unanimous againſt the Rites and Ceremonies? 13

14. Becauſe it is a Jeſuitical Opinion to hold, that Princes muſt determine nothing in matters of Religion, nor ought to encourage the Church: For Riches tend much to ſtrengthen the Clergy, and preſerve Religion; but diſſentions, and diviſions, and exaſperating of the King againſt the Biſhops, is the way to ſow the ſeeds of another deſperate War, and by novelties and diverſities make people grow weary, and ſet looſe to the practiſe of piety.

Stat. 25. Hen. 8. It was Enacted by Parliament, That no no Canons or Conſtitutions ſhould be made by the Biſhops, &c. and by them Promulgated, without the King's Command.

The Clergy were forced to give up their Power of Executing any old Canons of the Church, without the King's conſent had before. Records of Convocation.

All former Conſtitutions Provincial and Synodal, though hitherto in force, by the Authority of the whole Weſtern Church, were Committed to the Arbitriment of the King, and of ſixteen Lay perſons, and ſixteen of the Clergy appointed by the King, to be Approved or Rejected by them, according as they conceived them Conſiſtent with, or Repugnant to the King's Prerogative, as Head of the Church, or to the Laws of God, &c. Heylins Hiſtory. Stat. 25. Hen. 8.

Confirmed by 1 Eliz. cap. 1. 5 Eliz. cap. 1. 23 Eliz. cap. 1.

Becauſe in doubtfull matters the reſolution of the Major part muſt be obeyed; Now it hath been reſolved by many Kings and Princes, that our Government is not repugnant to the Word of God, from whoſe Judgment there is no appeal, but only to God by Prayer. 15.

Becauſe Schiſm did grow out of, and ariſe from Preſbyterian Government in the pureſt time, which cauſed the Churches then to out it, and to eſtabliſh Epiſcopacy, as the beſt Antidote againſt Schiſm, and for the Reſtauration and Maintenance of the Churches Peace, which was by Succeſſion from the Apoſtles, if not of Divine Inſtitution. The 16.

Apoſtles

Bullinger 5. Ser. Apoſtles of Chriſt ordained Biſhops in the Church. Now it ſeems a deſperate courſe to uſe Preſbyterian Government as Lloyds prim. Epiſ. a ſoveraign Antidote in our time, which had the effect of Poiſon upon the Churches in the Apoſtles time.

17. Becauſe Contention is a deadly Enemy to Charity, and Holy-living; Now the refuſing of Subſcription, and Obedience to Church-Government, muſt needs kindle Contentions; and why will you thus Contend? ſeeing that the Government by Biſhops is the Government of Chriſt, and what better Government can we expect from Man? A Government moſt of the Godly have Conformed to.

Baxter. Moſt of the Godly able Miniſters of England, ſince the Reformation, have Judged Epiſcopacy Lawfull, or moſt Fit, and moſt of them did Subſcribe and Conform to Epiſcopal Government, as a thing not contrary to the Word of God, (but as inſtituted by the Apoſtles, to which all or the moſt of the Ancient Fathers do agree) ſo that it is very Evident, that it is very Conſiſtent with a Godly Life to Judge Epiſcopacy lawfull and fit, or elſe ſo many hundred of Learned ned and Godly men would not have been of that mind.

Becauſe they ought to be under the Obedience of all Laws Eccleſiaſtical and Civil, which that Prince commands under whom they Live; Diviſion in Government makes Diviſion in a Kingdome, and a Kingdome divided cannot ſtand. Omne regnum in ſe diviſum deſolabitur. 18.

Becauſe the Grandeſt oppoſers of the Government of the Church of England, have ever been of Unconſtant principles, though Violently zealous in oppoſing Indifferent things. Which if ſimply Unlawfull they were ſin, why then do they not contend againſt them as ſinfull? but as formerly they did, ſo now they can diſpenſe with them under their own Cure, in the Perſon of another, and Subſcribe themſelves if they might be Diſpenſed with, as to a Compliance in their own Perſons, which by the Act they are Enjoyned. Nor do we find any great Oppoſition in the time of the Reign of our Immortal Queen Elizabeth, untill Her Majeſty Commanded Her Biſhops, and Her Biſhops by Her Authority Commanded 19.

manded due Obedience to the Government of the Church: which doth manifeſt it was not, nor is not Conſcience, that doth raiſe this Oppoſition againſt them, as if Unlawfull, but as not Convenient for them, that have been and ſtill are Braindiſtempered oppoſers of them.

20. Becauſe no Perſons for the reaſon of inconveniency, ought to reject what Publick Authority hath allowed; Sith that it is apparent that the Compoſers of our Divine Service-book, made choice of the beſt things out of the moſt Ancient Liturgies of the Churches, which Flouriſhed long before the Birth of Antichriſt.

21. Becauſe it hath not been manifeſted unto the Church of England by any Irrefragable poſitions, that the Government of the Church is Unlawfull, or the Ceremonies thereof Impure, for which impurity the Church ſhould lay aſide the Practice of them, being Warranted by the Word of God, or not Diſſonant from it; And that they are Unlawfull, hath not nor cannot be Proved, though Diſallowed by ſome, whoſe Approbation makes not the Government of the Church of

of England ever a whit the more Lawfull, though Conſented unto by them.

Becauſe we have the Truths of Doctrine, Chriſtian Ordinances, and a Holy People of the Church of England, exerciſing themſelves in the Holy Duties of Religion, without any manifeſt known ſin in the Manner of Worſhipping of God, or in the Matter, and therefore our Government ought not to be Altered, though Oppoſed by ſome that will not Conform, becauſe they are Commanded; and yet confeſs, we ought and muſt obey the Ceremonies for the ends Commanded, and as they tend to the Edification of our Selves and Others, and that if they tend to the Edification of the Church and good Order, they are Lawfull in the Commander. 22. Robinſon Juſtific.

Becauſe the Officers of the Church, (as our Arch-biſhops, Biſhops, &c.) met together to Diſcuſs and Conſider of matters for the good of the Churches, may be called a Church by the Judgment of the greateſt Antagoniſt of the Church of England. 23. Robinſon.

Becauſe the Order of Biſhops being of Divine Inſtitution, Ordination, or Confirmation 24.

firmation by the Apostles, it follows that they are not of less Excellency than the Churches, whose Servants they are, but that the Churches are and ought to be in due proportion Inferior unto them: The Man was not Created for the Woman, but the Woman for the Man; and as Ministers of the revealed Will of God, they are infinitely above and Superior unto all, (saith our great Antagonist) and for this Robinson. Ambassage of God and Christ, they are absolutely and simply to be Obeyed.

25. Because wearing the Surplice, Cope, Corner'd Cap, Tippet, Rotchet, the use of the Ring in Marriage, Signing with the Sign of the Cross in Baptism, Kneeling, Sitting, or Standing in Divine Service, are not Ceremonies in themselves, but only when they are so Designed, Appointed, and Observed. A Bishop doth not wear the Judges Quoif, the Counsellour a Surplice, the Attourney a Ministers Garment, a Lay man Parliament Robes, an ordinary Citizen an Alderman's Badge, it is one thing to wear a Garment to keep one Warm, or for some other Service, and another thing to wear it as a Distinctive cognizance of Author-

rity, of ſuch and ſuch a Degree, Office, Calling, or Profeſſion, in which uſe it is a Ceremony, otherwiſe not; a Ceremony external, becauſe internal actions of the mind being matters of ſubſtance, cannot be duely called Ceremonies; yet the inſtitution or obſervation of an action or thing (to expreſs this or that) to ſuch an uſe as is Ceremonious, makes it a Ceremony. See Styleman's Peace-Offering. Dr. Burges.

26. Becauſe meer Civility would teach, though Religion were ſilent, that men under Authority ſhould obey, and candidly forbear to intermeddle in matters of which they are not meet Judges, though as Mint, Anniſe, and Cummin; but Religion ſhould teach them much more, and put them in mind of the weighty things of the Law of Chriſt, ſtudying by all ways to gain ſome. I became a Jew that I might gain the Jew, ſaith that great Doctor of the Gentiles; and was this by contradicting and gain-ſaying the Ceremonies of the Jewiſh Church?

27. Becauſe God is a God of Order and Peace, and hath ordained and commanded Peace and Unity between Eccleſiaſtical and Civil Power, leſt the Peace and and Union both of Churches and Kingdoms be equally in danger of being broken. Now that there is in the Church of England purity of Doctrine, Order and Unity with Peace, the Brethren themselves confess, who do write about 1602. That in regard of the common grounds of Religion, and of the Ministery, we are all one, we are all of one Faith, one Baptism, one Body, one Spirit; have all one Father, one Lord; and be all of one Heart, against all wickedness, Superstition, Idolatry, Heresie, and that we seek with one Christian desire the advancement of the pure Religion, Worship, and Honor of God. We are all Ministers of the Word by one Order, we administer Prayers and Sacraments by one Form, we preach one Faith and substance of Doctrine. And we praise God heartily that the true Faith, by which we may be saved, and the true Doctrine of the Sacraments, and the pure Worship of God is truly taught, and that by publick Authority, and retained in the Book of Articles.

24. Because the propounding of the true Doctrine, the decision of Controversies, making making of Canons, Orders, Conſtitutions, &c. expedient and neceſſary to edification of the Church, are Acts of Religion moſt proper to the Church; and to make Laws to eſtabliſh them, to beſtow Civil Gifts and Privileges upon the Church, to ordain Civil Puniſhments for Offences committed againſt Chriſtian Religion, to erect Courts for the Cognizance of ſuch Cauſes, and the execution of the Laws, is the peculiar and proper work of Chriſtian Kings, who are the onely Judges of their People. Nevertheleſs Lambard. Chriſtian Kings, though they may well do all theſe things without the help of the Church, yet have they not done it, but have made uſe of the Church for the more ample diſcharge of that great truſt repoſed in them: Ut levior ſit illis labor.

Becauſe the Church hath power in 29. Civil actions that draw ſcandal with them, Eccleſiaſtically to cenſure, yea, the Church is to cenſure them Eccleſiaſtically in her members, though the Magiſtrate pardon or paſs them by, except the Parties delinquent repent of them, for then they are to be forgiven. And what Uſurpation is here upon the Magiſtracy? The Robinson. greatest enemy of the Church hath confessed this for a truth.

30. Because our Ceremonies are not immediate means of Worship, neither do they terminate themselves in God, who is worshipped.

31. Because the Church doth not give signification and effecting supernatural events to human Ceremonies, as the Papists do. And no Church ought further to separate it self from the Church of Rome, either in Doctrine or Ceremonies, than she hath departed from her self when she was in her flourishing and best estate, and from Christ her Lord and Head.

K. James.

32. Because Ceremonies are ordained for those ends for which Rites may be ordained, and are agreeable to those Rules which God's Word prescribes, to wit, Decency, Order, and Edification.

33. For Order and Uniformities sake. Not any one Duty in all the Scripture so oft and so earnestly recommended as Unity, which cannot be effected without some joint care to walk Uniformly in the Publick Worship of God.

34. Because the appointment of Ceremonies

nies to be used as Ceremonies, and not at all as Worship to God in themselves, are no where condemned in the Scripture, though not commanded.

Because our Ceremonies are of an in- 35.
different nature, and no Religion doth lie in the opposing of them, but scandal and offence doth arise thereby, causing even the good the Opposers might do to be evil spoken of, and to become unprofitable.

Because our Ceremonies are not against 36.
Faith, or a good life, few and easie, which Custome hath allowed; and the not conforming to the Custom of a Church or State, doth give occasion to Censures and Opinions, and thereby cause suspition, where a man might pass unquestion'd.

Because the Church of England never 37.
cast away all Ceremonies, nor utterly abolish'd them, but cast away all that which was properly Popish and corrupt in them. And although the Pope have corrupted the sound Doctrine, defiled the Sacraments, and uses Ceremonies for the most part blasphemous and Superstitious; yet we have the sound Doctrine, and wholesome use of the Sacraments, with Ceremonies according to the rule serving unto Order, Comelinesse, and Edification:

38. Because without Ceremonies which hurt not Faith and Charity, we shall never have any setled peace, and therefore men should study what will be the issue of untempered Zeal, or rather Passion, in opposing our Government of the Church as unlawful, and to take heed lest they raise up dust with their own feet, to blind their own sight.

39. Because the departure from Custom is unsafe and full of hazard, and an Innovation is scarce effected without dislike, opposition, and danger, if not ruine. All changes in Government commonly do cheat them most at last, who at first most desire them.

Tacitus.

Homil. against Rebellion

Though not onely great multitudes of the rude Commons, but sometimes also men of Wit, Nobility, and Authority, have moved Rebellion against their lawful Princes; though they should pretend sundry causes, as the Redress of the Common-wealth, or Reformation of Religion, though they have made a great shew of Holy meaning, by beginning their Rebellion

bellion with a counterfeit Service of God, and by diſplaying and bearing about divers Enſigns and Banners, which are acceptable unto the rude, ignorant, common people, (great multitudes of whom by ſuch falſe pretences and ſhews they do deceive and draw unto them) yet were the multitudes of the Rebels never ſo huge and great, the Captains never ſo noble, politick, and witty, the pretences feigned never ſo good and holy, yet the overthrow of all Rebells, of what number, ſtate, or condition ſoever they were, or what colour or cauſe ſoever they pretended, is, and ever hath been ſuch, that God doth thereby ſhew, that he alloweth neither the dignity of any perſon, nor the multitude of any people, nor the weight of any cauſe, as ſufficient for which the Subjects may move Rebellion againſt their Princes.

If the King proceed not in His Government according unto Law and Right, there is no Legal Remedy to be had againſt Him. All that we have to do is, that we do Petition Him for Relief and Remedy. Becauſe no man is to call the King's acts into queſtion, much leſs Bracton. i. c. A.

Anonymus. There is no inferior Magiſtrate of what ſort ſoever, but as he is a publick perſon in reſpect of thoſe that are beneath him; ſo he is a but private perſon, diſabled utterly to reſiſt his Soveraign, or bear defenſive Arms againſt him, as well as any other of the common people. For inferior Magiſtrates be no Magiſtrates at all, as they relate unto the King, the Genus ſummum in the ſcale of Government, and therefore of no more Authority to reſiſt the King, or call the People unto Arms, than the meaneſt Subject.

Plutarch. It is reſolved by Plutarch, that it is contrary both to poſitive Laws, and the Law of Nature, for any Subject to lift up his hand againſt the Perſon of his Soveraign.

Cal. Inſtit. l. 3. c. 10. Any private perſon whatſoever, who ſhall lift up his hand againſt his Soveraign (though a very Tyrant) is for the ſame condemned by the voice of God.

40. Becauſe the ſetling of Religion is to be looked upon as cauſal, not as conſequent to the peace and proſperity of the Kingdom. All things require Order, much much more Government. Now that there is order and ſettlement may appear from the purpoſe of our Church, which is beſt known by the Doctrine which ſhe doth profeſs, the Doctoine by the thirty nine Articles eſtabliſhed by Act of Parliament, the Articles by the words whereby they are expreſſed; and other purpoſe than the publick Doctrine doth miniſter, and other Doctrine than in the ſaid Articles is contained, our Church neither hath nor holdeth; and other ſenſe they cannot yield, than their words do impart; and therefore the Senſe the ſame, the Articles the ſame, the Doctrine the ſame, and the purpoſe and intention of our Church ſtill one and the ſame----- becauſe her Doctrine and Articles, for number, words, ſyllables, and Letters, and every way be the ſame. And why an alteration and unſetling the foundation of our Church, built upon the Doctrine of Jeſus Chriſt and his Apoſtles? Rogers.

Becauſe violent cenſuring of the Doctrine of the Church, the Government, the Ceremonies thereof, and ſpiteful contemning our Governors, will never alter the Doctrine, remove the Ceremonies, 45.

or unsettle our Governors, but make all the faster.

42. Because human Ceremonies improperly or respectively are and may be called parts of God's Worship, although in them the Kingdom of God standeth not.

43. Because our Lord Jesus Christ hath left nothing absolutely to the will of his Officers, but hath determined all things necessary unto Salvation, and left ambulatory Rites to the Church's liberty, under general rules, which being imposed by lawful Authority, become respectively necessary.

44. Because the same things which are originally and naturally grounded on human considerations, when they come to be applied to Sacred actions, for the comelineſs thereof in that use, are made Sacred, in respect of the ends to which they serve.

45. Because all Ecclesiastical Orders and Constitutions, serving to the external ordering of Religious actions, although they are called Civil, as made by men, in opposition to Divine Institutions, which properly bind the Conscience, yet improperly or respectively they do also bind the Conscience. Be-

Becauſe the Church doth not hold that the Laws thereof do properly bind the Conſcience, or that Simple obedience is due unto them, as unto the immediate Worſhip or Commands of God. 46.

Becauſe the Ceremonies of our Church be neither impoſed or obſerved with Superſtition or opinion of Neceſſity in themſelves, or of Worſhip, as though we placed Religion in them, much leſs with the Popiſh conceits of Merit or Efficacy. 47.

Becauſe our Ceremonies become neceſſary, not by the particular Commandment of Man, but by the general Commandment of God. For notwithſtanding they remain Indifferent in themſelves, and before God, and ſo to be uſed with a free Conſcience without placing any Religion in them; yet am I bound to obey them as neceſſary, by the General Commandment of God: Not as Neceſſary in themſelves, but as being Indifferent, and yet as neceſſary for the avoiding of Scandal or Contempt, as well as for Concord ſake. 48.

Becauſe our Ceremonies are neceſſary in their uſe: Miniſters are maintained, Obedience is ſhewed to the King, and his 49.

his Laws both Ecclesiastical and Civil, Peace is in the Church of Christ, free Preaching and Passage of the Gospel, which are of great Necessity.

50. Because the Vestments used make not any man Godly or Wicked, and although they were Inconvenient, not being Unlawfull, rather to be yielded to than refused for the Flock sake, and Publick peace of the Church.

51. From the Moral Signification of our Ceremonies, nothing is urged that can hold any thing of Type or Figure, but what is of a Moral equity: as the Surplice Sanctity in the Minister, to mind us of our first Estate, a mark of an High-calling, of the Dignity of the Person. The Cross constancy in every Christian Baptized: intimating also what the Congregation hope, and expect afterwards from the Infant. The Ring a token and pledge of sure performing and keeping the Vow and Covenant betwixt them made: whereby the Man may be kept from the Flattery of the Tongue of a strange Woman; and the Woman remembred that she forsake not the guide of her Youth, neither forget the Covenant nant of her God. The Act of Kneeling, Humility in all faithfull Communicants, every Communicant having a Prayer appointed for him in receiving.

Becauſe our Church doth not deny our Ceremonies, to have ſuch matter and form as gives them the Eſſence of Religious Ceremonies, or Appurtenances to bound Worſhip: but doth deny them to have any ſuch matter and form, as gives them the Eſſence of Worſhip it ſelf, properly ſo called. 52.

Becauſe our Church doth not teach men to think that the Lord is better pleaſed with theſe Ceremonies even in themſelves, than he is without them, or that they are as pleaſing to him, as if he had Commanded them: Howſoever Ceremonies, and a form of Liturgy is neceſſary, yet not more neceſſary for Epiſcopal, than Preſbyterial Government. 53.

Becauſe to make a Conſcience of things not forbidden, as if God would elſe be offended, is as much Superſtition as to hold him neceſſarily pleaſed with that he hath not forbidden. 54.

Becauſe by Subſcription I am required no more than to acknowledge thoſe things 55.

Com-

Commanded to be Lawfull, as not repugnant to the Word of God, and obliged thereby, not to resist or speak evil of those Lawfull Governours and Ordinances that preserve Peace.

56. Because our Subscription ex animo, is but the faithfull Declaration of our hearts, which by our Subscribing we Testifie to be real and sincere; and by way of Toleration, to accept our Hands without Hearty approbation, would but subtilly procure an outward Peace, and when occasion should serve dangerously disturb the Church and State: Nevertheless, by whatsoever Art of words any Man sweareth, yet God who is the witness of the Conscience, accepteth it as he doth to whom the Oath is made.

Ex animo (i. e.) dare fidem dare igitur fidem magis est quam promittere.

57. Because the Church can make no new Articles of Faith, nor no new Sacraments, no new Kind of Worship to God, properly so called; yet is left at Liberty in matters of God's Worship, to ordain Decencies for Edification of her self, and as God's Embassadors have Power in Ecclesiastical matters.

58. Because we have the constant Judgment of all Churches in all Ages for our Govern-

Government, which is much to be Honoured, and heard in all things that contradict not Scripture.

Becauſe our Lord Jeſus Chriſt did not fix any certain Faſhion for the receiving of the Sacrament, but ordained that which was Neceſſary, and left the reſt to occaſion and choice, which hath made the Law even by the Largeneſs of it, the more Perfect, and in reſpect of the Uſe, the more Commodious. 59.

Becauſe the Church doth not Bow, nor profeſs to Bow before, and to the Holy myſteries in the Sacrament, for reſpect of their Holineſs, which in that action the Church doth not look at as Creatures, but as Divine Symbols, ſignifying and ſealing the Covenant of Grace to us. 60.

Becauſe the Croſs in Baptiſm, is not added to the Sacrament of Baptiſm, but to the Solemnity thereof; neither doth the Church eſteem the Croſs any Eſſential thing, nor hold that it alters the Inſtitution, but as a thing Indifferent, as a Lawfull outward Ceremony, and Honourable badge of Chriſtian Profeſſion, whereby the Infant is Dedicated to the Service of Jeſus Chriſt: which Sacra- 61.

ment of Baptism the Church doth hold to be perfect without Confirmation, and that it adds not any thing to the virtue and strength thereof, but receives it as an Apostolical Institution, and as one of the particular points of the Apostles Catechism, set down, Heb. 6. 2. which is confirmed by the Judgment of Mr. Calvin in these words. Hic unus locus abundè testatur hujus Ceremoniæ originem fluxisse ab Apostolis. This one place doth sufficiently evidence the beginning of this Ceremony, to have been from the Apostles.

Calvin in Heb.

62. Because Ceremonies as they are not against the general rule of the Word of God, so they are not determinable by every Voice: and being setled, not likely to be removed. For what are we, the State should be moved for us, either this or that way, especially considering it hath not imposed any thing Unlawfull, or not Necessary, but what is allowed by Fathers, Councils, &c? and St. Augustine saith, That whatsoever the Universal Church hath held, and doth hold, and is not found in following Councils constituted, but always retained, is most rightly believed believed to be delivered by the Apostolick Authority.

Because our Ceremonies are not Private, but Publick, Sacred, not Civil; but yet Sacred by Application, not by Divine Institution; Mutable, not Permanent, Indifferent, not Necessary; ordained to be used necessarily in respect of Order, Peace, and Edification. 63.

Because to Judge of Order, and Peace, of what is convenient, and what not, and to determine thereof, belongeth only to those, which together with the Power of doing what they shall well like of, have the Scales of Wisdome, and Judgment, to weigh all Circumstances, and so to make choice of the best way. 64.

Because Non-conformity begets difference of Minds, diversity of Opinions, and hath brought forth Schism, yea, caused Heart Schism, and this amongst such who know Non-conformity is Sinfull, and cannot be Justified, nor ought not to be Tollerated: whereby each Non-conforming party become worse and worse, and the more confirmed in their mistakings. 65.

Because by In-conformity, the main 66.

Duties

Duties of God's Worship are neglected: and from Confidence fixed to an error of Opinion, with the reputation of some few to be maintained, the Bellows of strife are blown, whence ariseth despising of Government, and speaking evil of Dignities.

67. Because nothing is gained by the opposition of established Government, but in the end the strictest pursuers of Reformation fall to Vanity in their Writings, to make others Laugh, and in the mean while open a Door to Atheism and Prophaneness: The sad consequences hereof would better become such to Study than thus to make themselves Popular, by wilfull Disobedience to Lawfull Authority, not because of the Unfitness of Ceremonies, but of their Unwillingness to Obey.

68. Because by the extreme opposition of established Government, we may incense Our Prince and Governour, to courses inconvenient for us, when as nothing but Fewel is brought to the Fire still, nothing but what doth foment Strife, Bandying one against another, and against the established Government, the Con-

Consciences of men say within them, is not Unlawfull, but ought to be Submitted unto.

Because the Law-givers are not re- 69.
strained to any particular Act, but have Liberty to ordain such wholesome Laws, Canons, Orders, Constitutions, &c. Ecclesiastical and Civil, as are not repugnant to the Word of God, which are binding to the Conscience, and ought to be observed of every Man, though not particularly enjoyned in the Scripture, or written Word of God.

Because it is better to bear the Use of 70.
the Ceremonies, and yield Obedience to the Government, than occasion the Rending of the Church, the Displeasure of our Governours, the Loss of those Talents God hath entrusted any one with, the Distress of a man's Family, the Confirming of an error by Example, and Condemning as Untollerable, Sinfull, and Unlawfull, what God will Justifie as Lawfull in the Great Day.

For fear, lest by my Disobeying the 71.
Lawfull Authority of a Christian Church and Magistrate, whom I ought to obey for Conscience sake, I Scandalize the weak, or become an occasion to them that are weak, to Contemn the Authority of the Magistrate, and of the Church, and the Ceremonies thereof, which are appointed, and by them thought convenient, yea necessary, that the External Glory of the Church should be in some measure proportionable to the Glory of the Kingdome.

72. Because as Subjects we are bound in Duty and Conscience to Submit, which all may readily do with a free Conscience, because whatsoever Laws are Imposed, are Limited by the Word, and the Law-makers are restrained from Commanding that which God Forbids.

73. Because the Peace of the Church is one of the sweetest rellished Mercies that we hold next unto the Graces of God's Spirit, which by In-conformity is broken. And the Punishment of the Omission, or rather the refusal of Submission to the established Government, is in respect of the neglect, if not contempt of Lawfull Authority, of the Churches Discipline and Peace, and not because the meer Omission is Sin.

74. Because if the Ceremonies and esta-

bliſhed Government of the Church were Sinfull and Unlawfull, why do Miniſters themſelves, and not a few others, who refuſe to Conform to the Government in their own Perſons, quietly ſuffer it in their own Children? do they not love the Salvation of their Children? they ſhall be your Judges.

Becauſe the Church of England receiveth its own Cuſtoms with difference from other Churches, leſt men ſhould think that Religion is tied to outward Ceremonies, which Cuſtoms our Clergy uſe as the Cuſtoms of the place wherein they Live. 75.

Becauſe thoſe Laws which of their own nature are changeable, be notwithſtanding uncapable of change, if he which gives them, being of Authority ſo to do, abſolutely forbid to change them; neither may they admit alteration againſt the Will of ſuch a Law-maker. 76.

Becauſe Magiſtrates muſt Judge all cauſes, and Govern the people; whom all are to Honour, Submit unto, and Reverence, in deed, word, and geſture, as to the Lord: For the Word of God is Committed to them, and they therefore 77. Ainſworth.

are called Gods. And Subjection is due unto the King, as to the Superiour, unto the Governours, as they are sent of him. And this Subjection must be both openly and secretly, even of Conscience, and not for fear of wrath only. And there is not a cause why either Princes should forsake their Places, Titles, Dignities; or the People shake off their Subjection. For seeing Magistracy is God's Ordinance, none are meeter to Execute it, to have his Word and Sword committed to them, to carry his Titles, and to Judge the people. And seeing it is still his Ministery for the good of his people, none can better perform this Duty, and be Nursing-Fathers and Nursing-Mothers of the Church, than Christian Kings: in which Ministration they both maintain and conserve the true Religion of God, according to his Word, and reform things Amiss, and also maintain Civil peace: So that they are not only Ornaments of Commonwealths, but their Safety and Strength under God: and they are the Shields of the World, to whom we owe Homage, Service, and Subjection, and should allow them Maintenance, pay them Tributes, butes, and other Duties in recompence of their Cares, Labours, and Imployments; that so mutual Concord may all manner of ways be Conserved.

78. Because nothing is Commanded strictly to be observed, but such things as are necessary, and cannot be omitted without Disorder and Scandal; unto the Obedience of which all have been, and are still invited and sweetly drawn, with yielding to the Conditions, capacities and judgments of men, so farr forth as the Stamp which God hath set on those he hath called to Office and Command, may be Preserved and not Debased. And seeing that the Original occasion of Episcopacy doth very much commend it, it being brought in to Heal the evil of Schism, and by preventing it for time to come, to secure the Peace of the Church, it should be the more acceptable to us. Lloyd.

79. From a desire by our example of Obedience, to win others to the love of the Government, and by our sweet behaviour, to attract others to Virtue, not to Disputations; while they observe our Dispositions, Manners, Affections, Aims and Intendments are to glorifie God, and not being otherwise minded, in all Humility to yield to reason, not presuming upon our own strength, but with patience bearing what is Commanded, with all Long-suffering, that we may be like our Heavenly Father. Lest we seem to make our selves wiser than He.

80. Because our Spiritual Governours are given unto us, and set over us, as those to whom the whole care of the Church belongeth, and by whose Authority the honour of the Church is preserved, which remaining safe, Peace is safe, therefore let us be followers of their Doctrine, Living in Conformity to the Customs of the present times, Imitators of wise Christians, and such as are Patterns to be practised by: considering, that our Prince and Governours, who are the true Patterns and Mirrours of God amongst us, are not ignorant of any thing whatsoever, which may tend to the quiet Religious and civil Government of us and the Kingdome.

81. Because Princes are Lords over Laws, and enjoyn them to others, of whom it is not Lawfull to invent, or speak that thing which may turn to the Disgracing of the Laws and Government, or Reproach of our Governours, appointed by our Head and Superiour, to whom we muſt and ought to yield Obedience by the Command of God, in all cauſes whatſoever.

Laws

Becauſe it is more meet that we follow 82.
the Counſel of many Learned Biſhops, who had the chiefeſt hand in Planting, in the Reſtitution and Reformation of Religion in all Ages, than that all of them ſhould ſtrike Sail to the fancies of a few inconſiderate Muſhromes, conſidering that the Power they have committed to them, hath been and ſtill is for the good of the Church, and not for themſelves, which others that want Integrity, Morality, Charity, Mercy, and Judgment, cannot exerciſe nor diſcharge ſuitable to the ends of Government.

Becauſe the Churches abroad confeſs 83.
their Preachers have a great deal of wrong and injury offered them, in that they are blamed as though they ſought to bring the Authority of Eccleſiaſtical Prælates to nothing, when as they never forbad them that worldly Government and Authority which they have given unto them by Kings and Emperours, for the civil Government of their Goods, &c. it being conferred upon them by Pious Princes, out of their Love to Christ and his Ambassadors, the better to preserve them from the contempt of the wicked, and to inable them the better to maintain the great interest which in civil things belongs to the Ecclesiastical State, and that the great Honour of a Christian Kingdome should not sit without giving the Ambassadors of Christ an Honourable place, and Privilege amongst them.

84. Because the Churches abroad confess, that so many as do despise Ecclesiastical Assemblies, and separate themselves from them, they are contemners of true Religion, and are to be compelled by the Bishops and Godly Migistrates, to surcease stubbornly to separate and absent themselves from sacred Assemblies.

85. Because the Churches abroad confess, if any Church do Religiously celebrate the memory of the Lord's Nativity, Circumcision, Passion, Resurrection, and Ascension into Heaven, and sending the Holy Ghost upon his Disciples, according to Christian Liberty, they do very well allow of it.

Because

no Religion doth keep every where the ſame Ceremonies, although they admit and receive the ſelf ſame Doctrine touching them. For (ſay they) even they which have one and the ſelf ſame Faith, diſagree amongſt themſelves about Ceremonies, the Churches having always uſed their liberty in Rites, as being things indifferent.

Becauſe the Churches abroad confeſs, 87.
Ceremonies brought in by good Cuſtome, are with an Uniform conſent to be retained in the Eccleſiaſtical Aſſemblies of Chriſtian People at the common Service of God, according to the Doctrine of the Holy Apoſtles, Let all things be done in the Church decently and in order. For God is not the Author of confuſion but of peace; and no man by pretending a ſhew of Chriſtian liberty, ſhould withdraw himſelf from ſuch conſtitutions as be godly, and ſerve to a good uſe.

Becauſe the Churches abroad confeſs, 88.
although their Preachers do not keep all Rites with other Churches, yet they do not withſtand or oppoſe themſelves to any good and godly Conſtitutions, neither are they so minded, as that for the Ceremonies sake they would raise up any dissentions, although they should think that some of them were not very necessary.

89. Because the Churches abroad confess, their meaning is not to have Rule taken from the Bishops, but teach, that the true Pastors of the Churches may ordain Publick Rites in their Churches for good Order's sake; and if they be broken, with offence given, there, where the Churches are well ordered, and there be not error in Doctrine, let him that in such a place breaketh them know, that he doth offend, because he disturbeth the peace of the Church well ordered, or doth withdraw others from the true Ministery.

90. Because the Churches abroad do profess Ceremonies invented by Man, such as are seemly devised for Order, may be observed without any opinion of Merit, Worship, or Necessity; and confess, they do both observe certain Ceremonies, which are comely, and made for good order; and also teach that they ought to be observed, even as men cannot live without good order.

The Apoſtles, in whoſe room the Biſhops come, have made it ſufficiently manifeſt unto us, that the preaching of the Word of God is the principal function of thoſe who are placed in Biſhops Seas.

95. Becauſe it were ſcandal not to give obedience to the Laws of the Church, when they preſcribe things neceſſary or expedient for eſchewing of ſcandal, and it were contempt to refuſe obedience to them, when we are not certainly perſwaded of the unlawfulneſs or inexpediency of things preſcribed.

96. Becauſe in things which are in themſelves indifferent, and none of them inexpedient, we ought to do that the Church requireth, though our Brethren ſhould exhort us unto the contrary, being bound in conſcience to obey the Ordi- nances of the Church, except they be evidently unlawful, and when the Authority of the Church doth ordain, and the things be lawful and expedient, we are bound by both (saith an Anonymus of Scotland.)

97. Because the Church of Scotland professe his Majesty shall ever find, that he hath none more loyal and true Subjects, who will more gladly imploy and bestow their Lives, Lands, Goods, Houses, Holds, Gear, Rents, Revennes, Places, Privileges, Means, Moyeties, and all in his Highness Service, and maintenance of his Royal Crown; and moreover have so deeply conceived a deep and strong perswasion of his Majesty's Princely Virtues, and much renowned propension to Piety and Equity, that they will urge their consciences to assent unto every thing which the King enjoyns, as Right and Convenient.

98. Because abstaining from Christian Assemblies, and publick Worship of God, under pretence of employing their Talents for the good of the Church in private meetings, is scandalous, and an inductive to sin.

Because

Because the Churches of God do hold with the Church of England the lawfulness of Absolution, after satisfaction enjoyned by the Church, when men have defiled themselves with Murther, Idolatry, or filthy Lusts; and that formerly they were sever'd from mutual society, and afterwards the Churches did not suddenly receive such offenders again, though they did repent, that it might be known that they did unfeignedly repent of their Murther, Idolatry, and filthy Lusts, and ask pardon; and for example sake that it might profit others, for certain days Absolution was deferred, that they might be seen to ask pardon publickly; which publick satisfaction before the Church, although in a sort Political, yet may be referred to the Ecclesiastical Order, and may altogether be distinguished from those punishments which are meerly Civil, and from those which are to be inflicted by the Magistrate, which the Churches doubt not is both acceptable to God, and commodious for the edifying of the Church. 99. 1 Cor. 5.

puniſh, whereupon by conſequence will follow his falling from his Eccleſiaſtical Office and Dignity (ſaith an Anonymus of Scotland) And the Churches abroad with the Church of England ſay, there muſt be publick Satisfaction and Abſolution after Repentance, before he can be received again into the Church of God, becauſe of Scandal given to the whole Church of God, although the King do pardon him. For as there ought to be diligent enquiry in the Synods touching the Life and Doctrine of the Miniſters, ſo thoſe that offend are to be rebuked of the Seniors, and to be brought into the way if they be not paſt recovery, or elſe to be depoſed, and as Wolves to be driven from the Lord's Flock by the true Paſtors, if they be incurable. For if once they be falſe Teachers, they are in no wiſe to be tollerated, ſaith the Harmony of Confeſſions. And in publick Diſcipline (ſaith the Church of Geneva) it is to be obſerved, that the Miniſtery pretermit nothing at any time unchaſtiſed with one kind of puniſhment or other; And if Miniſters ſhall do any thing which is Scandalous to the Congregation, or punishable by Civil Authority, then such a Minister shall be Suspended from his Ministery, and it shall stand in the judgment of the Classis (with us, of the Bishops) whether he deserves not to be deposed, say the Synods of the Low-countries.

The sum of all to unsetled spirits is this, to get a full perswasion of the mind concerning our establish'd Government and Governors, because a full perswasion of the mind (yea, even where the judgment faileth) touching matters not intrinsecally evil, giveth rest to the conscience.

Especially when you have considered indeed, that the judgment of all causes, the deciding all controversies, the censure of all men, the sentence determining all actions, are the Kings, and in His performances rests the very Soul of the State, and the life of a State's flourishing; whose Soul is of too fine and quick a Metall to love doing nothing. And when the affections of the minds of men, or any other humor, usurps an overswaying Authority, the body of the State languisheth, and by refusing to obey men, ruine one of the two best parts of man. For whether a Prince cometh to Authority by Succession or just Election, it is not lawful to practise against Him, because he is the Lord's Annointed: The greatest motive to Moderation, the onely stay of the reeling steps of Man's humanity; and next unto that nothing should move us more to continue our Moderation, than the great commiseration of our Prince towards us that were his enemies, Arguments sufficient to make us love Him, and not to contend with Him, his Government, or Governors, much less to study to fetch the means of our supposed safety from false grounds, which will prove a humor unsafe and most displeasing; by the want of which Moderation we shall serve a wrong Master, and by our strong affections and weak experience, shew what folly governs us in resisting of His Authority. Therefore let us give Him the love of our hearts, it will make Him happy, and us in Him; For what we desire to make us happy and at peace, is matter of thought onely without truth, which kind of thoughts formerly hath led us into strange transgressions against a Divine Law, besides other errors; like wandring Empericks, respiting pain, and doubling the pain and danger afterwards; or else like Women with child, that like nothing but what is hard, if not impossible to come by, and so by an uncertain pleasure, purchase certain loss and pain. Wherefore let us hearken to the counsel of St. Chrysostom, who observeth, that the God of All hath given All but one House, the world, to be domesticos naturæ, The Houshold of Nature, that Father of Lights hath light all but one Candle, the Sun, to be Filios lucis, Just and unjust Children of that Light: seeing he that spreadeth it out as a Curtain, hath covered all but with one Canopy and roof of Heaven, to be one Family of Love: and seeing the Feeder of every living thing, hath spread all but one Table, the Earth, at which Board we are all Companions of one Bread, and drink all of one Cup, the Air; doubtless this community of natural things should breed such a common Unity in nature, as should make men in this common House to be of one mind, and sons of one light; and the family under one roof to walk in this House of God as familiar friends, and companions at one Table, to eat their meat together with singleness of heart. And not with the Bramble affecting Superiority over the Cedars of Lebanon, set on fire the Trees of the Foreſt; or like that Wood in the Poet, being ſhaken by the wind, Sponte edidit ignem qui ipſam conſumpſit, Of it ſelf gave fire which conſum'd it all. Which leads me to add a word or two unto you that will not conform; Unto you I wiſh peaceable ſpirits, with ſerious conſideration of the Reaſons which with me have prevailed to own and ſubſcribe unto the eſtabliſh'd Government of the Church of England, notwithſtanding thoſe ſeeming Reaſons, Scriptures, and Authorities, brought by you to perſwade, that to ſubſcribe and yield obedience to the eſtabliſhed Government is ſinful and unlawful, and to joyn in Worſhip with the Church of England, as it is now conſtituted a Church, is to commit Idolatry: But after long ſearch and inquiry made, I find your Scriptures, Reaſons, and Authorities to fall ſhort of that truth I once believed to be in them, and

of no power to convince the Church of England doth err either in Doctrine or Diſcipline, which while I did believe, I did not conform in any Circumſtantial ſuppoſed error, but was a Non-conformiſt with you, upon the Reaſons, Scriptures, and Authorities by you Urged, Preached, and Printed; yet have I not at any time knowingly riſen up againſt the Powers that commanded and enjoyned Obedience, as they are Powers, but upon the grounds aforeſaid), which grounds I have conſidered upon in more ripe judgment, and find them not to be ſufficient to warrant diſobedience to the Higher Powers, or to joyn with you in your determined Non-conformity, having the eyes of my underſtanding better enlightned by the Divine goodneſs, by Scriptures, Reaſons, and Authorities, the Confeſſions and Profeſſions of the Churches abroad, the Laws and equitable Conſtitutions of the Kingdom (of which I am an unworthy Member) beſides what I have learnt from your own Writings, of which formerly I was ignorant. From all which Grounds, Reaſons, Scriptures, Au- thorities, Writings, &c. I see not any cause to make further appeal, nor know not of any higher search that can be made for the discovery of the truth. Now that ye may the rather weigh and consider of what I have here offered to publick view, after the satisfaction given hereby to my own conscience, know, that I am not a person under any temptation, neither have I any Ecclesiastical Promotion to lose, nor one that hath ever sought after, or doth seek after Honor, Advancement, or to be preferred in the world, (though I might have had it, for Swearing subjection unto an Usurping Power) no, I am a person studying to get my daily bread with hard labour, labouring under great unthankfulness, unjust and vexatious suits, and all-devouring scandals; not mounted upon the uncogged wheels of prosperous fortune, no, the Plutoes of the world, sons of violence, rapine, and spoil, have cogged every spoak in my wheels, I mean, men, who by force, and power, and other unjust practices, have possessed themselves of all I have, and have possessed it for more than than ten years without an accompt or restitution; which puts me in mind of an Historical Example, not utterly to be despised of them. The example of injustice is reported by one Antonius de Florentia, an antient Doctor, who tells us of a certain man that would not make restitution of his unjust gain, alleging if he should do so, his Children might beg, or be sent to the Hospital. The Father dieth in the same estate, his eldest Son succeedeth, and likewise will not restore. The younger Brother demandeth his part of those goods, and restoreth after the rate of his portion, the rest that remained he gave to the poor, and entred into the state of a solitary life. Shortly after the elder Brother dyeth, whereupon was shewed to the younger Brother, living in chast contemplation, this Vision following; He seeth his Father and his Brother in torment, one cursing the other, the Father saying the Son was the cause of his damnation, because it was for the love of him, and enriching of him, that he did not make restitution. The Son he cursed, and said that his Father was the cause of his damnation, because he left him these ill-gotten goods, the keeping whereof hath wrought his perdition. Let such as have gotten ill-gotten goods in their possessions, or are intangled with the iniquity of them, apply this Example before it be too late, and consider of Thespesius Fable in Plutarch, He Fableth an infernal Vision of Souls like Vipers hanging on together, did bite and gnaw one another, Ob memoriam injuriarum in vita actarum, Remembring old grudges and wrongs done in their life time here on earth, keeping their hatred for ever.

They appear in Sheep's cloathing, but inwardly they are ravening Wolves.

Tuta frequenſq; via eſt per amici fallere nomen, Tuta frequenſq; licet, ſit via crimen habet.

A ſafe and common way it is by friendſhip to deceive,
But ſafe and common though it be, it's knavery, by your leave.

Now I return to our purpoſe; I find it recorded of Dionyſius Hallicarnaſſeus, who was never advanced to Magiſtracy in the Roman Re-publick, that he hath Written farr more truly the Hiſtory of the Romans, than thoſe which Flouriſhed amongſt them with Riches and Honour. So I hope you ſhall find from an Obſcure perſon, more of the truth concerning our eſtabliſh'd establisht Government, and reasons for the same, than you have ever heard delivered, or seen Written by most in Honour and Esteem amongst you: Many of them being like the Franciscans of Old, who at the beginning professed Conscientia, losing a Syllable, and Honesty with it, fell to Scientia, and now having lost two Syllables, remain pure Entia, Stocks and Images. Such as these may well despise and reject these Reasons as of no worth, and disdain to read them, much more to own them, and in hatred of my Name consider my Person, and not the Weight that is to be found in every sentence in them, though of so great concern, as wisely improved, would put a stay to the Reeling steps of many thousand Ignorant, Unstable, and All-concluding Souls. What I have Written is necessary, though by disowning of your Principles, I seem to savour of Levity and Inconstancy, but my reward is with me; I know, and am prepared for the Slanderous tongues of an Ungratefull and Miskenning world, I reckon not what becomes of me or my credit in this World, or what I have that is most dear unto me, ſo God may be Glorified in me and by me: it is not what men can Speak, or may Write, will diſmay me, it were better their pains were beſtowed about their own Everlaſting peace, as others had, better in former times to have beſtowed the Labour they took to prove and perſwade the Church of England did err, in taking care they themſelves had not erred in Doctrine, and joyned Practice with it: Departing from the Truths of God, Rejecting the Book of Common-prayer, (and Teaching others ſo to do) with great Judgment purpoſely framed, (as I believe) out of the Grounds of Religion, which we profeſs and hold for Agreement ſake, and that Scandal might be avoided in our Chriſtian Divine Worſhipping of God: By means of which in former times, great Miſchiefs were preſaged, which came to paſs in our days, beſides Perjury, which did accompany all our Evils to the undermining the Tribunals of Judgment, and the Wofull diſturbance of Church and State: which the proudeſt Non-conformiſt cannot Balk, but muſt confeſs it is a Truth, and that they have walked within the Enormous confines of their

their own Exorbitant desires, and even as Atheistical Nullifidians, have not regarded the Blood of a King, like riotous Ruffians, eating and drinking and taking pleasure therein, adjoyning Criticks to justle out the truth of the Lawfull absoluteness of Kingly power, practizing as the Scenical jesters do, fast and loose, without a Cordial subjection and obedience, but being Covetous, cried, give give for a King, to whom no Antheme was more pleasant than possession of 80000 l. Diotrephes like, seeking for the Pre-heminence, yet pretending to have the self-denying Virtue; but Demas like, did embrace the present now, and at the same time, while they did profess themselves lofty Favourites, took a Pattern of Religion from Raviliack, and cared not for a King so much as a Wildred promise, a Promise that made a King of never Dying Virtues, and Bishops of never Dying Fame, troublesome to their queasie Stomacks; The Devil they had rather have for their Father and Confessour, by whom they were led to follow the bright Beams of Corruscint Gold and Silver, that had with them Authority to make them

them turn Turn-coats; yet ceased not Parasitically to profess and swear they Loved the King with all their Saul, at that very time the Friperers of Power and Government were telling them so much Money as made those Mercenary Pensioners bow before they would break, though they had a King of Power in their Hands able for ever to have made them and three Kingdoms happy: if these were not Ideots, going in the Pride and Presumption of their Hearts, after the Gods of Gold and Silver, let all Generations judge, whose Faith was Spun so broad, and whose Consciences were without Measure, as the Corn in Egypt without Number: let any who have had so great Convincing reasons, as we have had Judge, how likely they should be the only feeling and faithfull Members, that made so great a Defection from Duty and Allegiance, or with what Confidence we should rely upon their Pargetting Profession, whose Pandects and Plagiaries have made their Mountainous thoughts to swell higher than any Mountain in their barren Country, being a people more Lapped than Nichodemus, who was ignorant rant of the Mysteries of the Gospel, and came by night to Jesus for Instruction; but these who professed they knew Jesus to be Christ the King of Jews and Gentiles, came by night to their Annointed Soveraign Lord and King, not for instruction, but to betray him, and Judas like, sold him for Money, the root of all Evil. Now consider, if God was so severely wrath with David a King, for the Death of Urias the Hittite that Dyed in Warr, with others of his Subjects, that God did threaten Him, that the Sword should not depart from his House; And tell me, nay, tell the whole World, whether you think Private persons, Subjects sworn in Allegiance to their undoubted Lawfull King, if they shall treacherously Murther their King, will go Unpunished of God? shall not his Sacred blood be upon their Heads? upon the Heads of those that have Slain a righteous King? upon the Heads of those that put the Sword of Warr by their side, at a time of tenders of Peace? Can such be guiltless? O tempora! O Mores! it is hard to Kick against the Pricks. By this very thing let it be known to all Gene-

Generations, ye were Sons of Belial, ye that might have prevented the Murther, and did it not, ye are guilty: His blood be upon you and your Children, and the Innocent let them be free. Thus far I hope I have kept a good Conscience in what I have done, and hope so to keep it, whatsoever I suffer for this my Integrity; when I was a Child, I did as a Child, and took the Covenant, being traiterously mis-led by them that did pretend Zeal and Piety, for which transgression I humbly plead the forgiveness of Our Dread Soveraign Lord King Charls the First.

I willingly forgive such mens taking the Covenant, who keep it within such bounds of Piety and Loyalty, as can neither hurt either the Church, my Self, or the Publick peace: Otherwise than thus I have not kept it, and therefore with humble boldness lay hold upon, and plead my right unto, and in the Act of Indemnity, given and granted by Our Dread Soveraign Lord and King Charls the Second, as my Salvo against all the false Rumours and Reports gone out against me, unto which I humbly add the Admission under Seal from the Right Reverend

rend Father in God Gilbert, by the Divine Providence Lord Bishop of London, which I doubt not but they are sufficient Indemprities for my first Oath that ever 1643. I took, being in Nonage and under Servitude when I took it; And when enlarged into freedome, I took the Oath of 1648. Allegiance and Supremacy, and since never took any Oath in any kind whatsoever, but in Obedience to His Sacred Majesty. And therefore let those that would retort upon me the Covenant, consider the time when it was taken by me, and under what Jurisdiction I then was, & remember that one Grand objection against our Rulers, brought by all Non-conformists as a reason to enforce the taking of it, (viz.) that they were Wicked, (but now are Justified) which Objection brought as a reason, did much prevail upon the Hearts of multitudes of Ignorant Men, Women and Children, and upon my Self amongst others: But had we been able wisely to have considered, that the wickedness of the Rulers, (if any such there were) did not make the truths of God a Lye, and his Commandments of none Effect, it might have been a good Premonition to us, that profess our selves the true Members of the Church, to have taken heed we had not fallen, and carefully to have minded those that made it their business to creep into mens affections with enticing Words, and under pretence of Religious opposing Ceremonies, and established Government, Kill'd the power of Godliness. Nevertheless, as I have, so still I do acknowledge many Godly men to be amongst those that do not Conform, and sound Religion, yet not more sound Religion (as some formerly and now would perswade) than is in them that Conform, although some might then, and may now seemingly be of a more holy Conversation: Howsoever that was, and is the Error of the Person, not of the Government or Doctrine of the Church, yet such themselves being Judges, cannot but have Regret upon their Spirits for those desperate falls they have had in the Opposing of the Doctrine of our Church, and our established Government; The fall of Contempt, and Disobedience unto that Divine Commandment, Curse not the King, no not in thy thought. The breach of four great Commandments, the 5, 6.

9, 10. their joyning Violence with that they called truth, and Cruelty with that they called righteousness too evidently manifest: by which things alone I might easily be Convinced of the Equity of an established Government, and the Iniquity of them that did and do oppose it, who knowingly so horribly did Violate God's own Laws, which here I use as an Argument for my own lawfull and just Defence, especially when I consider, that the first Opposing of established Government was but the beginning of Evils, which gave scope to Bloody Seditions. And therefore by this my contending for the established Government, with Subjection and Obedience to the King, is, that I may go the right way to meet Peace: that I may be clear from the Blood of all men; pure, then peaceable. From whence I inferr, that it is better to Contend against you, who have preferred your own Humors and Opinions before the Commandments of God and the King; than to be at Peace with you, You who have occasioned dangerous Schisms, Seditions, and Bloody warrs, by which you clearly Evidence and Justifie the Authority of a

Law

Law in Church and State: Under which Law had we acquieſced, we had not been wrapped in ſuch evil ſnares, but by our Obedience removed much Evil, and prevented the ſhedding of much Blood, beſides the good we might have done to others, others whoſe Conſciences by ſtrange Doctrine, and unparalleld Practice, have been made Bold, Erring, Preſuming, Secure, if not Seared: who under a pretence of good Meaning, attempted Unlawfull, nay Sinfull, nay Damnable actions, which cannot be Juſtified or Excuſed. For if a good meaning did or could juſtifie or excuſe evil actions, then they who killed the Apoſtles might be juſtified and excuſed, becauſe in ſo doing they thought they did God good Service. How farr any of ye that have been Leaders in the Church of God, through your good meaning (if I may ſo ſay) have been or are from Soul ruinating Scandal, (though ye might not intend any ſuch thing) let your own Conſciences and the fearfull Effects of the late Warr, give in Evidence for Conviction, as it doth clearly manifeſt the danger of yielding to the firſt beginnings of Evil, as also the danger of opposing established Government, and teaching others so to do by Doctrine or Example. Ye could not swallow Gnats of Ceremonies, but Camells of Blood went down; O Bellua Multorum Capitum! These, these things we should lay to Heart, and be humbled for those great Provocations and Defections from our Covenant made in Baptism, our Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy (for the breach of less Oaths than these we find the Romans branded from the time of the third Punick Warr) our opposing of the established Government of the Church of England, our loss of the Practice of Piety, and this with all our Hearts, and according to all our Powers, to endeavour to help the wounded Church of Christ, the cause of our Religion which suffers much at home, and much abroad, by our strange Doctrines, Opinions, and more strange Actions, and this with the loss of our Credits, and all that is dear unto us, endeavouring all of us in our Places and Callings for the time to come, to keep the Commandments of God and the King, without declining unto the right hand or the left, that so the Evils felt or feared for our former Disobedience and Rebellion, may be removed and prevented, and our Persons find acceptance with God, through the only Merits and Mediation of our Great High Priest the Lord Jesus, the Mediator of the New Testament, to whom be Honour and Glory ascribed of us and all the Churches of God now and for evermore.

ver. 21. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

ver. 40. Let all things be done decently and in order.

5. 4. In the Name of Our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my Spirit, with the Power of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

ver. 5. To deliver such a one unto Satan, for the destruction of the flesh, &c.

ver. 6. Your glorying is not good.

1. 10. Now I beseech you, Brethren, by the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you: but that ye be perfectly joyned together in the same mind, and in the same judgement.

ver. 13. Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye Baptized in the name of Paul?

that he is Christs, let him of himself think this again, that as he is Christs, even so are we Christs.

For we dare not make our selves of the ver. 12.

that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves amongst themselves, are Finally, brethren, farewell; Be perfect, 13. 11.

be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

ver. 22. But the fruit of the Spirit is Love, Joy, Peace, Long-suffering, Gentleness, Goodness, Faith, ver. 23. Meekness, Temperance: against such there is no Law.
Ephes. 4. 1. I therefore the Prisoner of the Lord, beseech you, that ye walk worthy of the Vocation wherewith ye are called,
ver. 2. With all Lowliness and Meekness, with Long-suffering, forbearing one another in Love.
ver. 3. Endeavouring to keep the Unity of the Spirit in the bond of Peace.
ver. 4. There is one Body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your Calling.
ver. 5. One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, ver. 6. One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.
1 Thes. 5. 12. And we beseech you brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you:
ver. 13. And to esteem them very highly in love for

for their work ſake. And be at peace among your ſelves.

Now we command you, Brethren, in the name of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, that ye withdraw your ſelves, from every Brother that walketh diſorderly, and not after the Tradition which he received of us. 2 Theſ. 3. 6.

As I beſought thee to abide ſtill at Epheſus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mighteſt charge ſome that they teach no other Doctrine. 1 Tim. 1. 3.

Now the end of the Commandment is Charity, out of a pure heart, and of a good conſcience, and of faith unfeigned: ver. 5.

From which ſome having ſwarved, have turned aſide unto vain Janglings; ver. 6.

Deſiring to be teachers of the Law, underſtanding neither what they ſay, nor whereof they affirm. ver. 7.

This charge I commit unto thee, Son Timothy; according to the Prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mighteſt Warr a good warfare: ver. 18.

Holding faith and a good conſcience, which ſome having put away, concerning faith have made Ship-wrack. ver. 19.

One that ruleth well his own Houſe, having his Children in ſubjection with all Gravity. 3. 4.

ver. 6. Not a Novice, lest being lifted up with pride, he fall into the Condemnation of the Devil.

ver. 10. And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a Deacon, being found blameless.

ver. 14. These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

ver. 15. But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thy self in the House of God, which is the Church of the Living God, the Pillar and Ground of Truth.

5. 1. Rebuke not an Elder, but entreat him as a Father, and the younger men as Brethren:

ver. 17. Let the Elders that rule well, be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who Labour in the Word and Doctrine.

ver. 21. I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the Elect Angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by Partiality.

ver. 22. Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other mens sins, keep thy self pure.

Where-

Wherefore I put thee in remembrance, that thou ſtir up the Gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of my hands. 2 Tim. 1. 6.

Of theſe things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they ſtrive not about words, to no profit, but to the ſubverting of the hearers. 2. 14.

Study to ſhew thy ſelf approved unto God, a work-man that needeth not to be aſhamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. ver. 15.

But ſhun Profane and Vain babblings, for they will increaſe unto more ungodlineſs. ver 16.

For of this ſort are they which creep into Houſes, and lead captive ſilly Women, laden with Sins, led away with divers Luſts. 3. 6.

Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. ver. 7.

But evil Men and Seducers ſhall wax worſe and worſe, Deceiving and being Deceived. ver. 13.

All Scripture is given by inſpiration of God, and is profitable for Doctrine, for Reproof, for Correction, for Inſtruction in Righteouſneſs. ver. 16.

For this cauſe I left thee in Crete, that Titus 1. 5.

thou should'st set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain Elders in every City, as I had appointed thee.

ver. 10. For there are many Unruly and Vain talkers, and Deceivers, especially they of the Circumcision:

ver. 11. Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

ver. 15. Unto the pure all things are pure, but unto them that are defiled, and unbelieving, is nothing pure: but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

ver. 16. They profess that they know God: but in works they deny him, being Abominable, and Disobedient, and unto every good work Reprobate.

3. 1. Put them in mind to be subject to Principalities and Powers, to obey Magistrates, to be ready to every good work.

ver. 2. To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

ver. 9. But avoid foolish Questions, and Genealogies, and Contentions, and Strivings about the Law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

A man that is an Heretick, after the first and ſecond admonition, reject : ver. 10.

Knowing that he that is ſuch, is ſubverted, and ſinneth, being Condemned of himſelf. ver. 11.

Obey them that have the rule over you, and ſubmit your ſelves : for they watch for your ſouls, as they that muſt give account : that they may do it with joy, and not with grief : for that is unprofitable for you. Heb. 13. 17.

Salute all them that have the Rule over you, and all the Saints. ver. 24.

And without all contradiction, the leſs is bleſſed of the better. 7. 7.

Now when theſe things were thus ordained, the Prieſts went always into the firſt Tabernacle, accompliſhing the ſervice of God. 9. 6.

But into the ſecond went the High-Prieſt alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himſelf, and for the errors of the people. ver. 7.

Submit your ſelves to every ordinance of man for the Lord ſake, whether it be to the King as Supreme, 1 Pet. 2. 13.

Or unto Governours, as unto them that are ſent by him, for the puniſhment of evil-doers, ver. 14.

ver. 17. Honour all men, Love the brother-hood, Fear God, Honour the King

Jude v. 8. Likewise also these filthy Dreamers defile the Flesh, despise Dominion, and speak evil of Dignities.

ver. 10. But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute Beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

ver. 17. But beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the Apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ:

ver. 18. How that they told you, there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

THE OFFICE and CHARGE Belonging to the Overseers of the Poor, &c.

What is the word Overseer? Quest. 1.

The Word Overseer is a distinction of Office, a word of Antiquity not of Novelty, a word of Excellency not of Indignity; an Office beseeming the best of men, not the worst of men, 1 Chron. 23. 4. Acts 20. 28. Answ.

What is an Overseer of the Poor? Quest. 2.

One placed over others to see unto them. Answ.

1. To see what is to be done.
2. To foresee how it may be done.
3. To Oversee that it be well done.

1. To imploy the Poor by Work.
2. To Relieve the Poor by Money.
3. To order by Discretion the wants of the Poor.

Queſt. 3. What men are fit to be Overſeers of the Poor?

1. Men of Honeſt Report.
2. Men of Wiſdom.
3. Men of Wealth.
4. Men of a good Conſcience.

Queſt. 4. What men are not meet to be made Overſeers of the Poor?

Anſw. 1. Such as complain of their being taxed too high for the Poor, which give with grudging, and pay with delaying.

2. Such as will not be ſpake with at home when the Tax is to be gathered, nor bring money to the Church to pay it, but rather abſent themſelves from Church to defraud the Poor of their right.

3. Such as ſpend all upon their Pride in Diet and Apparel beyond their degree, but part with little to the Poor.

4. Such as abuſe the Overſeers, and out-face them to defraud the Poor.

5. Such men as will pay no more then the Law compels them to, alleging that there is a Law, and by the Law they muſt live.

Queſt. 5. What ſhould Overſeers conſider of in their Office?

Anſw. 1. To diſcharge their Office as in the ſight sight of God who searcheth the heart and seeth all their actions.

2. To avoid all malice, and not to Tyrannize over the Poor. The Naturalists observe, that the Governour of the Bees is without a sting, or useth it not though it have a sting.

3. That their Office is not held by Patent, but that they are as Tenants at will, and as they do over-see, so they shall be over-seen.

4. That if any perish for want of succour through their neglect, it is their sin.

5. That what Beggars are licensed in the Parish according to the Law, to continue them within their limits, or else to punish them for their defaults.

6. That if they shall tax ten shillings more by the week then is needfull, and then give largely because there is enough, it will but encrease the number of the Poor, and nothing decrease the charge of the Parish.

7. That they relieve not such as may forbear it, because it is to nourish idleness, to rob those that want it, to wrong those that pay it, and condemn them of oversight which dispose it.

8. That to enquire after Poor is the way to procure Poor, and some will sue to be Recorded for Poor that are able to contribute to the Poor, and being Recorded raise scandal upon them, if not the Curse of the Poor.

Quest. 6. What is the Office of an Overseer?

Answ. The Office of an Overseer, is, to Tax the Contributions for the Poor, and receive the Donations, and then discreetly to dispose thereof. Taxing all men that are Inhabitants.

1. According to Equality.

The middle sort not equal with the Rich, and when every one is rated equally according to his Estate, to see that every one pay their rates though there be sufficient besides for the Poor.

1. For Example sake.

Lest others be backward in paying their due.

2. For the good of the Inhabitants.

If any thing be left it will some what abate the taxation the year following: Moreover, if the weaker sort pay, and the better able be undertaxed or forborn, it is an injury.

2. According to their Estates.

Which

Which is not to be judged by reports: that is the next way to make Poor maintain Poor. For a man of 250 pounds Eſtate with no Children is equal to a man of 500. pound Eſtate with many Children, and ſo proportionably.

3. According to the time.

War and Extreme times may raiſe the rates which in plentifull and cheap times ought to be taken off. Contributions are not to multiply Poor, but to take off Poverty.

Who are lyable to Taxations? Queſt. 7.

1. By the Statute every Inhabitant in a Pariſh. Anſw.
2. Every Occupyer of Land.
3. By Proclamation Parſons and Vicars be bound to the Relief of the Poor.
4. Every one that hath Tithes appropriate, Colemines, or Land in manual Occupation, and ſuch as have Saleable wood.

What may be the cauſes of Taxations? Queſt. 8.

1. For a Stock to ſet the Poor on Work. Anſw.
2. To relieve the Impotent.

1. Such as through age are past Labour.
2. Infants, poor Orphans, and others left fatherleſſe and motherleſſe, who by reaſon of their tender years cannot work, or are unable to live of their work which otherwiſe would become the ſeed of beggery.
3. Ideots, or natural fools.
4. The Blind, Lame, and Dumb.
5. The maimed in the Kings War.
6. Men maimed in their lawfull Calling.
7. Madmen.
8. For Relief in caſe of Sickneſſe, or any infectious diſeaſe.
9. For men afflicted with the Numb Palſey.
10. For men decayed, or over-charged with many young Children.
